Holy Father's Prayer Intentions

For mutual coexistence

Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious, or ideological reasons.

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

Vigilance, hard work, determination, attentiveness, fidelity - these are some of the qualities that Jesus is speaking about in the Gospel. To "gird your loins" means that you are immediately prepared for some challenging task. You are ready for the hard work ahead and are committed to it. To "light your lamps" implies that you are not in the dark but that your mind is enlightened in such a way that you are able to see that which is the will of God.

As we go through life, it is easy to become complacent in the things of faith. It is easy to become lazy, disinterested, distracted, and unfocused. This parable goes on to speak of a thief who tries to break into a house in the middle of the night. This is Jesus' way of saying that the evil one, with his lies and attacks, is constant, vicious, forceful, and unpredictable. For that reason, we must never grow tired of being vigilant in the spiritual life and must always be attentive to the light of God's voice.

How attentive are you to the mission of Christ on a daily basis? This is an essential question to answer honestly. Most people will find that they become distracted from the mission God has given to them. We experience countless things every day that compete for our attention. Many of those competing voices might not appear to be sinful. For example, perhaps a certain hobby has become the dominant focus of your free time. Or perhaps responsibilities at work have spilled over into your family time. Or perhaps some painful or even enjoyable experience has had your full attention for some time. Though it is obvious that sinful distractions in life are evil, it might not always be as obvious that there are many other neutral distractions that are a real problem. The problems they can produce are a lack of attentiveness to the will of God and a lack of readiness to engage the will of God the moment He calls.

Imagine, for example, that a very important person calls you to ask for a favor. Most likely you would drop all you were doing and respond immediately. But, sadly, when the King of the Universe attempts to speak to us and inspire us to some mission, we can be too distracted to even listen, let alone respond with immediacy and zeal. This is a problem. If, however, a person is continually attentive to the voice of God and responds to His interior promptings as soon as they are received, then Jesus says that this person is truly blessed and that He will "have the servants recline at table, and proceed to wait on them." In other words, the result of being vigilant in our attentiveness to the inspirations of God is that God Himself will reward us with His service. He will invite us to the table of spiritual rest, peace, joy, and fulfillment. He will serve us His mercy, which will be more than we could ever imagine.

Back To School Prayer

Dear Lord,

As our students begin a new school year,
We pray that you will keep them in your care. Send your Spirit to open their minds to all that is true and beautiful and good. Help them to see the gifts and talents you have given them and to use them well. Help them to grow in knowledge and wisdom.

Help them to be kind to others and lead others to be kind to them.

Give their teachers patience and understanding and help them teach what is just and true.

Send your angels to guide and guard our children and to keep them from all harm.

Open their young hearts to your presence and enfold them in your peace and protection.

Hold them in the palm of your hand and bring them home safely at day's end.

Amen.

GROW IN YOUR FAITH

The Kids Bulletin

Are you Ready?

Jesus tells us that we need to be ready, work hard, pay attention, and stay faithful to Him. When He says to “gird your loins,” it means we should always be ready to do hard work for God. When He says to “light your lamps,” it means we should keep our hearts and minds open so we can see and follow God’s will.

Sometimes it’s easy to get lazy or forget about God. In His story, Jesus talks about a thief who comes in the night. This reminds us that the devil tries to trick us when we’re not paying attention. That’s why we need to stay close to God every day and listen to His voice.

Think about your day: do you pay attention to what Jesus is asking you to do? Many things can distract us—playing games, hobbies, work, or even worries. Some of these things aren’t bad, but they can make us forget about God if we let them take up all our time.

Imagine if a very important person called you—you’d stop what you were doing to listen. But sometimes, when God speaks to us, we don’t pay attention. Jesus wants us to listen right away. When we do, He says we are blessed, and He will welcome us to His table, giving us peace, joy, and love.

Today, try to listen for God’s voice. Remember that He is always with you and always speaking in your heart. If you make a habit of listening to Him, you will never miss out on the special mission He gives you.

St. Eusebius of Vercelli, Bishop

The early fourth century brought to the fore many bishops who were champions of correct theological teaching about the divinity of Jesus Christ against the first major heresy attacking his divinity. One of these bishops was Eusebius, Bishop of Vercelli, a small mountain city in northern Italy. He became bishop there in 345. Like so many others, he was persecuted and harassed because of his orthodox stand and writings.

Taken into the politics of the theological dispute, he traveled trying to make peace and effect compromise between the feuding factions of the theological dispute. His insistence that the emperor keep out of the theological dispute, led to his exile and further grief. Hunger-strikers may have a patron in St. Eusebius – while in Palestine the Arians imprisoned him in a small house, but released him after a four day hunger strike. Eventually, he was able to return to his diocese, and there he continued to preach and promote monastic life. He died there peacefully in 371.

From a letter he wrote to the people of his diocese while he was in exile we read:

"I know now that you are safe, as I was hoping. I rejoice in your faith, in the salvation that comes from faith, in your good works, which are not confined to your own surroundings but spread far and wide. I want not only to serve you in the body, good people that you are, but also to give my life for your well-being."

He continued: "I beg you to keep the faith with all vigilance, to preserve harmony, to be earnest in prayer, to remember me always, so that the Lord may grant freedom to his Church which is suffering throughout the world, and that I may be set free from the sufferings that weigh upon me, and so be able to rejoice with you." (2nd Reading, Liturgy of the Hours). His wish, we noted was granted. He returned to his people and worked among them for many more years, tireless in his faith and love.

After escaping from Auschwitz, a man hears the tragic news about ten random inmates sentenced by the Nazis to death as a punishment for his escape—one of whom is Fr. Maximilian Kolbe.

Clare and Francis

This outstanding movie is unique among films about St. Francis because of the historical accuracy of the story and its authentic spirit of joy and piety so characteristic of Francis, as well as the major role played by Clare. Both founded major religious orders, and together they inspired many to follow their radical call to live the Gospel.

The Assumption of Mary

The Assumption of Mary, body and soul in Heavenly glory, highlights the power of God and Christ's victory over sin and death for Mary's soul. Learn about this great mystery in Mysteries of the Rosary.
