For mutual coexistence

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

The context of this passage provides insight into Jesus' mission and His concern for each and every person. Note that Jesus was traveling toward the large and populous city of Jerusalem. But as He traveled, He passed through "towns and villages" and taught the people as He went. This might seem like a small detail, but it is also a significant one.

A city like Jerusalem was large and often had wealthy, influential, and "important" people. The less-populated towns had borders and often some form of local government. Villages were much smaller rural areas, often made up of poorer, less educated, less influential, and simpler people. One historian, Josephus, wrote that there were about 240 villages throughout Galilee at the time Jesus lived. It's interesting to note that Jesus wanted to teach everyone. He didn't care if they were wealthy and powerful people in the large city or peasant farmers and shepherds from the countryside. His mission was to all.

One thing this teaches us is that we, also, must have love and concern for everyone, regardless of their social status. Each and every person is equal in dignity. From the president of a large country, to the beggar in an alleyway, everyone deserves our respect and attention in an equal way.

Our fallen human nature experiences various forms of temptation. Among them are temptations for riches, power and prestige. For that reason, we tend to admire those who have obtained worldly success because we want it for ourselves. As a result, we tend to show greater respect for those who have achieved what we covet and give less attention to those who do not have that success. This, of course, goes to the heart of the problem.

When you think about the people whom you have encountered recently, what comes to mind? Perhaps your "encounter" was to read about someone's great success in the financial world. Or perhaps it was to read about someone's demise in another way. Perhaps a neighbor has done well and purchased a new car, or a friend got fired from a job. Whatever the case may be, it is important to consider the level of personal respect and love you show for each person. It must be equal. Worldly status cannot determine how we treat others. This is hard to avoid.

The teaching that Jesus gave to those in the towns and villages was an exhortation to holiness. "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough." And at the end of today's Gospel, Jesus says, "For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last." The latter statement must have especially resonated with those who felt somewhat insignificant and unimportant in life. Those who felt like they were "last" would have received a certain hope. This tells us that God never measures us by our successes from a worldly standpoint. He measures us only on the level of our fidelity to His holy will.

We were blessed to have a surprise visit by Bishop Stephen Parkes for our 10am Mass this past Sunday! It was a joy to welcome back our former Pastor who is now Bishop of the Diocese of Savannah.

Please welcome Seminarian Joshua Theisen!

He will be with us for his
Pastoral Year

My name is Joshua Theisen, and I was born and raised in Kentwood, Michigan. I am the youngest and only boy of three siblings, and have three nephews and one niece. I graduated with a bachelor's degree in history from Michigan State University in 2016 and subsequently worked for Booking.com from 2016 until 2021. I moved to Celebration, Florida in 2019 both to be able to spend more time with my family that lives in Winter Haven and because I was able to transfer with my work. After a particularly strong encounter with God during my senior year of college, I began to discern the priesthood. I first discerned with my home diocese of Grand Rapids but felt that the Lord was drawing me elsewhere. Following my move to Florida, I began the process of discerning priesthood with the diocese of Orlando, and God has made it clear to me that I am currently in the right place.

I graduated from St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary in May with my master's degree in philosophical studies. Following this year of formation at Annunciation, I will have about 4 more years of theological formation before ordination.

I am so grateful for the warm welcome that I have already received here at Annunciation and look forward to a great year of serving the Lord together!

GROW IN YOUR FAITH

The Kids Bulletin

Every Person Matters to Jesus

Jesus cared about everyone He met. As He walked toward the big city of Jerusalem, He stopped in small towns and villages to teach people. The city had rich and powerful people, but villages often had poor farmers and shepherds. Jesus loved them all the same.

This shows us that every person is important. It doesn't matter if someone is a president or a person in need on the street—God made each of us with equal worth. We should treat everyone with love and respect.

Sometimes people look up to the rich or famous more than to others. But Jesus reminds us that what matters most is not money or power, but following God's will. He said, "Strive to enter through the narrow gate," and that some who seem last will be first with God. That gives hope to those who feel small or unimportant.

God does not measure us by the world's success, but by our faith and love for Him.

For most of us, the Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated when we were either in junior high or in high school. You do not have to pre-register.

THIS INVITATION IS FOR YOU!

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program. Classes begin on Tuesday, August 26th at 7pm in the Nazareth Center.

St. John Eudes, Priest – August 19

St. John Eudes (1601 – 1680) was ordained a priest of the Congregation of the Oratory in 1625 and spent his first years as a priest caring for the victims of plague, then for a decade he was a parish missionary, an enthusiastic preacher. The seventeenth century priest knew the needs of the Church as indicated by the Council of Trent. It mandated the reforms which St. John Eudes set himself to bring about through preaching spiritual renewal. He also worked to provide for better education and spiritual formation of priests who would in turn be better preachers and spiritual guides for the people.

The renewal-minded priest hoped to realize his ideals through the religious community he founded, the Congregation of Jesus and Mary. Part of St. John's ministry led him to a concern for street people, especially women held in bondage to a life of prostitution. A woman named Madeleine Lamy who had provided care for several of them challenged St. John one day: "Where are you off to now? To some church, where you will gaze at the images and think yourself pious? And all the time what is really wanted of you is a decent house for these poor creatures." He listened, and eventually was able to establish a community of women to provide shelter and care. This community today, the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, continues this work.

His personal devotion was fervent, and it sustained him through many criticisms, difficulties, and rejections throughout his life. He persevered by being "one with Jesus." To his religious and to all who would hear him, he wrote: "You belong to the Son of God, but more than that, you ought to be in Him as the members are in the head. All that is in you must be incorporated into Him. There will be no true life for you except in Him, for he is the one source of true life. Apart from Him you will find only death, and destruction. Let Him be the only source of your movements, of the actions and strength of your life" (2nd Reading, Liturgy of the Hours).

St. John Eudes died on August 19, 1680. He was canonized in 1925 by Pope Pius XI and was recognized as the one who initiated the liturgical cult of the Hearts of Jesus and Mary.

Feast of Saint Monica | Catholic Saints

Throughout her life, St. Monica constantly prayed for the conversion of Augustine, her beloved son. In a moment of desperation, she even asked for the bishop's help. In response, he said, "the son of those tears surely will not perish." Truly, as this bishop remarked, Monica's tearful prayers helped build her son into the Doctor of Grace. In this video, join Dr. Gray and Dr. Sehorn as they discuss this great Saint.
