Holy Father's Prayer Intentions

For mutual coexistence

Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious, or ideological reasons.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE CARE OF # Creation

The first day of September is celebrated by Christians around the world as the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation.

During this time, Christians are asked to join in prayer and work for the care of our common home. The theme for 2025 is "Seeds of Peace and Hope," drawn from Isaiah 32:14–18.

"Now is the time to follow words with deeds," Pope Leo XIV said in his message for the day. "Living our vocation to be protectors of God's handiwork is essential to a life of virtue; it is not an optional or a secondary aspect of our Christian experience" (Laudato Si' 217). By working with love and perseverance, we can sow many seeds of justice and thus contribute to the growth of peace and the renewal of hope. It may well take years for this plant to bear its first fruits, years that, for their part, involve an entire ecosystem made up of continuity, fidelity, cooperation and love, especially if that love mirrors the Lord's own self-sacrificing Love."

Blessings on your Labor Day!

Our Parish Office and Bookstore will be closed on Labor Day Weekend through Monday, Sept. 1st. Adoration will also be closed. We will have our regular 7am and 12:15pm daily Masses on Sept. 1st.

A Reminder:

The Creed Series takes a break this week - no sessions on Monday, September 1 or Tuesday, September 2. We resume on September 8 and 9.
Thank you!

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

"When you hold a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment. Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind;" Luke 14:12–14

This Gospel passage goes to the heart of our motivations in life. Because of our fallen human nature, we can easily do what we do for selfish reasons. We want payment for our labors and acknowledgement for our acts of kindness. We want to get ahead in life and try to elevate ourselves over others. But Jesus makes it clear that our motivation for everything we do must only be the glory of God and the love of others.

The poor, crippled, lame and blind in this passage refer to those who are in need of our love. This certainly will include friends and family. When we encounter those in need, we must offer our love, not because we get something out of it, but because it is the right thing to do. The payment we receive in this case comes directly and exclusively from God. It's not a payment of societal recognition or praise. It's not a payment of material things. It's not a payment that helps us get ahead in life. It's a payment of grace that makes us holy. This is the only motivation we should have in life—a motivation for holiness by glorifying God through our love of Him and others.

Think about your motivations in life. Why do you do what you do every day? Clearly we all have certain responsibilities that must be met, such as earning a living, caring for the home and family, strengthening our relationships, etc. But why do you do these things? What is the source of your motivation? Is your motivation based on pure love?

When our love is pure, we are motivated to act in one way or another because we see that it is our holy duty toward God or an act that will benefit another. For example, a loving and holy parent will work hard to earn a living not because they want to get rich so as to indulge in the things of this world, but because they love and care for their family and want to provide for their material needs. Or a friend will seek to be there and listen to another friend not because it is advantageous for them, but because they love their friend and want to provide a listening ear when they need it. True love always looks at the good of the other, looking for the ways they are spiritually poor, crippled, lame and blind so that they can help them in accord with God's will. True love always seeks to fill a void with what is needed at that moment.

The good news for us is that when our motivations are pure and selfless, looking only to glorify God and care for others, God will lavish upon us eternal rewards that begin now. We will grow rich in virtue and rich in the fruits of the Holy Spirit. We will obtain joy, peace, strength, courage, love, goodness and so much more. These good things are the true riches in life and can only be bestowed by God upon a soul whose motivations in life are pure, selfless, sacrificial and merciful.

GROW IN YOUR FAITH

The Kids Bulletin

Love Like Jesus

Sometimes we do things just to help ourselves. We might want money, thanks, or to be the best. But Jesus teaches us that the best reason to do anything is to love God and to love other people.

Think about why you do things each day. Do you help at home, work hard at school, or take care of your family? Do you do these things to help only you, or to show love to others?

When we act out of real love, we do things to help others and to make God happy. A mom or dad might work hard, not to be rich, but because they love their family. A good friend listens and cares, not to get something back, but just to love their friend.

Real love always thinks about others first. It looks for people who are sad, hurt, or in need and tries to help them.

The wonderful news is that when we live with pure love, God gives us His gifts. He fills our hearts with joy, peace, courage, kindness, and many other blessings. These are the treasures that last forever.

St. Joseph Men's Group

Join us every Friday morning for Mass at 7am in the Church, followed by great coffee in the St. Gabriel Life Center with a reflection on the readings and prayer. We finish by 8am.

All men of the parish are welcome.

Sacred Story

Join us on a journey to Divine Intimacy.

Are you aware of the presence of God in your midst in every moment of your day? Sacred Story will help you notice those moments and be open to responding to His presence.

Which voice are you listening to? There are so many voices in the world, but only one voice that can reconcile you and set you free. It takes time to learn to hear this voice. Through the practice of Ignatian Spirituality you will come to know your Sacred Story.

Sacred Story is a 40 week journey. We meet weekly starting Monday, September 8, 2025 from 7-8:30pm in the St. Gabriel Life Center. Please pray about joining us on this journey to a deeper and closer relationship with the Lord.

Are you an adult who has not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation?

For most of us, the Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated when we were either in junior high or in high school. For those adults in the OCIA, their Confirmation is celebrated when they are baptized at the Easter Vigil. But, for a variety of reasons, many adult Catholics have not yet been confirmed. You do not have to pre-register.

THIS INVITATION IS FOR YOU!

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program. Classes have just started: Tuesdays at 7pm in the Nazareth Center.

TO FIND OUT MORE: Contact Mary Ann Fox at mfox@annunciationorlando.org.

DO YOU HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT THE CATHOLIC FAITH?

Have you been away from the Church... or do you just want to learn more about your faith? Were you raised in another faith or maybe not raised in any faith, but feel called to something deeper?

Please contact Mary Ann Fox at mfox@annunciationorlando.org for more information.

St. Pius X, Pope – August 21

Giuseppe Sarto (1835- 1914) was born to poor parents. He entered the seminary at age 15 and was ordained a priest in 1858 at the age of 23. For seventeen years, he was a parish priest, then chancellor of his diocese. Appointed Bishop of Mantua in 1884, he endeared himself to his people by his gentleness and warmth as he went about renewing his diocese. Ten years later, he was named Cardinal and Patriarch of Venice, and in 1903 was chosen as Pope.

Of great interest to us today is the personal initiative that he took and his courage in liturgical matters. He initiated reforms or updates of the liturgical books, a revision of the text of the psalms, and he encouraged an active participation of the laity in the celebration of Mass. It is known that he was convinced of the value of the vernacular in the liturgy, but thought that the time was not yet right for its use. Much of what he envisioned and encouraged is a reality for us today.

In the internal affairs of the Church, he gave impetus to the codification of Church or Canon law. He took a strong stand against interference in the internal affairs of the Church by governments, especially France. He was concerned also for the correct teaching of Catholic doctrine and the strong catechetical formation of the youth. He encouraged the serious and critical study of the Scriptures.

The years of the pontificate of Pope St. Pius X were difficult, but he untiringly gave of himself "in the spirit of simplicity, poverty, and courage, arousing the faithful to a Christian way of life and waging constant warfare against the errors or heresies of his age." (Cf. note in The Liturgy of the Hours). He was a gentle and sensitive shepherd after the model of Jesus, the Good Shepherd. A historian wrote of him: "He was a man of God who knew the unhappiness of the world and the hardships of life, and in the greatness of his heart wanted to comfort everyone."

Mother Teresa: No Greater Love

Mother Teresa: No Greater Love is a soaring tribute to a spiritual icon, a powerful witness of authentic Christian charity, and a guidepost for all who seek hope in our turbulent times: Mother Teresa of Calcutta. This film reveals not just who Mother Teresa was, but how her singular vision to serve Christ in the poor continues to be realized through the Missionaries of Charity today.

Pope Saint Gregory the Great | Catholic Saints

In the history of the Church, there are less than five popes esteemed with the title "the Great." One of the lesser known members of this impressive group is Pope St. Gregory the Great. Gregory is known for his prolific writing, his radical humility, his emphasis on missions, and his dedication to almsgiving. Enjoy this discussion between Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. John Sehorn.
