Holy Father's Prayer Intentions

For our relationship with all of creation

Let us pray that, inspired by Saint Francis, we might experience our interdependence with all creatures who are loved by God and worthy of love and respect.

Prayer for Catechists

Loving Father, we pray today for our catechists. We thank you for their gift of ministry in your Church.

Grant them your wisdom that they may grow in the understanding and teaching of your Word. Grant them also your love that they may be fruitful heralds of your Word and lead others to love you.

Pour forth your Holy Spirit upon them to grant them wisdom about what is important; knowledge of the truths of faith; understanding of their meaning; right judgement about how to apply them in life; courage to persevere even in the face of adversity; reverence before all that is sacred and holy; and that loving zeal which leads others to a transforming encounter with your Son.

We pray this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently. "For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light." Luke 16:8

These verses conclude the Parable of the Dishonest Steward. At that time, it was common in Palestine for agents to manage a master's money, making loans and collecting them with interest—much like modern banking. The steward in this parable was dishonest, skimming profits for himself. When his master discovered it, he told him to settle his accounts because he was about to be dismissed. The steward, still holding authority for the moment, quickly reduced the debts of his master's borrowers, hoping to gain their favor and secure future opportunities once he was out of work.

Jesus does not tell this parable to praise dishonesty, but to highlight how people driven by selfish, worldly goals often use prudence and energy more zealously than the "children of light."

This invites us to reflect on our own priorities. If you wrote down your life's goals, what would be first? Hopefully, the love, service, and glory of God would sit at the top. In the end, that is what matters most, and every other goal finds its proper place when centered on Him. Yet if you ordered your list by how much time and energy you give each pursuit, would it look different? For many, worldly concerns—career, finances, hobbies, or entertainment—receive the bulk of attention, while faith practices often fall behind. Prayer, Scripture, catechesis, devotion to the saints, Sunday Mass, and works of charity can be treated as secondary or even burdensome.

Though daily responsibilities are necessary, most people need to reorder their lives by making God's will the central mission. The key to this is prudence. Prudence, called the "mother of virtues," directs all of life's activities toward the highest goal. On a natural level, it is the habit of wisely directing our time and energy. Supernatural prudence, strengthened by grace, elevates this gift so we can discern and accomplish God's will with clarity and zeal.

Phishing and Scam Alert

We continue to see fraudulent emails, texts, and phone calls using the names of Fr. Matthew, other clergy, and ministry leaders. If someone contacts you "asking for a favor" or asks you to reply only by email, do not respond. These scams often request money or gift cards. When in doubt, please call the Parish Office at 407-869-9472. Thank you.

GROW IN YOUR FAITH

The Kids Bulletin

Putting God First

Jesus told a story called the Parable of the Dishonest Steward. Long ago, rich people had helpers who took care of their money, like banks do today. In this story, the steward, or helper, was stealing from his master. When the master found out, he said the steward would be fired. Before leaving, the steward made the people who owed money pay less, so they would like him and help him later.

Jesus was not saying it is good to lie or cheat. He told this story to show that people often work very hard for money or fun, but sometimes do not work as hard for God.

Think about your own life. What is most important to you? We should put God first—loving Him, serving Him, and giving Him glory. When God comes first, everything else in life will fall into place. But many times, people spend more time on sports, TV, hobbies, or jobs than on prayer, church, or helping others.

Of course, we need to work, go to school, and take care of our families. But we should always try to make God's will the center of our lives. God gives us the gift of prudence, which means making good choices. Prudence helps us use our time and energy for what really matters. With God's grace, we can learn to choose what is good and follow His will every day.

We provide help Monday through Thursday from 3:30pm-5:30pm on the days that school is in session. No amount of time you have is too small!

Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary – September 8th

The Birth of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Lord and our Spiritual Mother is an observance of particular interest to our parish, which is dedicated to Mary, recalling the mystery of the Annunciation. Locally, it was on a rainy night, September 8th, 1994, that our founding pastor, Monsignor Patrick Caverly, formally dedicated our Lourdes Grotto. It was an evening filled with memories, recalling the founding of our parish twelve years earlier, and the birthday of his late mother, Mrs. Agnes Caverly. Our local observance each year on September 8th follows the tradition of the Roman Catholic Church, celebrating Mary's birth since the sixth century.

The Birth of Mary is directly associated with the great feasts of the Annunciation and Christmas, when we celebrate the coming into our world of God's and Mary's own Son. However, this Feast of Mary's birth celebrates Mary's own coming into the world and the Church (all of us) is especially joyful. It is the kind of joy all of us feel when looking at the miracle of each new human life. Sacred Scripture does not offer an account of Mary's birth, but the belief among the Catholic faithful for twenty centuries held that Mary's parents, Anne and Joachim were infertile, elderly, and prayed to God for a child. Their prayer was heard. An angel was sent to announce the coming birth of their child, to be named Mary, who would make possible God's plan for our salvation.

In Mary's birth, we see holiness, perfection in love and great potential. So this great Feast is not alone a glorification of Mary herself, but rather of her future "yes" to God that made possible our redemption. Birthday celebrations bring happiness to the celebrant as also to family and friends. Next to the birthday of her Son, Mary's birth brings us the greatest possible happiness.

One final prayer: "The birth of the Virgin Mary's Son, was the dawn of our salvation. May this celebration of her birthday bring us closer to her Divine Son."
