Holy Father's Prayer Intentions

For collaboration between different religious traditions

Let us pray that believers in different religious traditions might work together to defend and promote peace, justice, and human fraternity.

A PRAYER FOR HOPE

Heavenly Father, in the sacrament of Baptism, you have given us the gift of new life. Through your son our Lord Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit, you have made us your own.

Help us to recognize the gift of human life as a sign of hope in our world.

Reveal to us the places where your precious gift of life is most in need of protection and strengthen us to defend life in all stages and circumstances, from the child in the womb to the elderly and dying.

Guided by your Holy Spirit, guard us from discouragement and give us the grace to be messengers of hope, filled with confidence that nothing can separate us from your love.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

Is it possible to completely uproot a tree and plant it in the sea? It's certainly hard to imagine how. It is especially hard to imagine doing so with a simple command of faith. Uprooting a tree is hard enough to imagine, but it is even more difficult to imagine a tree being planted in the sea. Though water is necessary, one cannot plant a tree in the sea and expect it to grow. But that's partly the point. We often underestimate the power of true faith. Saint Matthew's Gospel says that faith can move mountains. Saint Luke's says it can uproot a tree and replant it in the sea. All it takes to do so is faith the size of a mustard seed.

How much faith is equal to a mustard seed? A mustard seed is small, very small. It measures only about one millimeter in length. People who worked the soil at that time would have known that it was among the smallest of seeds they planted. For that reason, Jesus uses this familiar image to teach the apostles that faith, even a little faith, is powerful.

Jesus' teaching comes in response to a prayer on the part of the apostles. "Increase our faith," they said. Jesus' response, inviting them to have only a little faith, implies that their faith was quite weak. To increase their faith to the size of a mustard seed suggests that they did not even have a little faith yet. Most likely they were aware of that fact, and that was the reason they asked Jesus to increase their faith. They perceived their lacking and turned to Him Who could help.

One of the first steps to increasing faith is to humbly admit our lack of faith. In our pride, we often want to convince ourselves and others that we are filled with faith. But if that were the case, God would be doing incredible things through us. He would be doing that which is otherwise humanly impossible.

Obviously, faith does not give us magical powers by which we can literally command a tree to uproot itself and plant itself in the sea. This imagery is meant to tell us that faith will work miracles of faith, not necessarily physical miracles. In fact, if God ever did use us and our faith to work a physical miracle, it would only happen because it was a motivation for the far more important gift of the increase of faith.

What, then, can a little faith do? It can uproot sin from your heart and from the hearts of those around you. It can nourish you and others in ways that seem impossible. Just as a tree cannot normally be planted in the sea and survive, the gift of faith, even a little faith, will enable the soul to be nourished and strengthened in ways that otherwise seem impossible.

We are pleased to announce that Vicki Ridgeway has accepted the role as the Director of Faith Formation.

Vicki has had various roles on our Faith Formation team for over 12 years. Over those years she has helped develop and improve many of our current programs.

She is excited for her new opportunity and looks forward to continue to grow our Faith Formation Ministry.

GROW IN YOUR FAITH

The Kids Bulletin

Help us have more:

FAITH

Can you pull a big tree out of the ground and put it in the sea? That sounds impossible! Trees need dirt to grow, not water all around them. But Jesus said even something like this can happen with faith. The Bible tells us that faith can move mountains. It also says faith can make a tree grow in the sea. All it takes is faith as small as a mustard seed.

How small is a mustard seed? It is tiny—one of the smallest seeds. Jesus used this seed to teach that even a little faith is very strong.

The friends of Jesus asked Him, “Help us have more faith.” Jesus told them that even a little faith could do great things. Faith does not give us magic powers. Instead, it helps us believe in God and trust Him. With faith, God can do miracles in our hearts.

So what can faith do? Faith can pull sin out of our hearts. Faith can help us grow close to God. Even a little bit of faith can make our souls strong in ways that seem impossible.

Seasons of Hope

Bringing Comfort
through Catholic Grief Support

M. Donna MacLeod

Foreword by Bishop John P. Dolan, Diocese of Phoenix

"Seasons of Hope" is a unique grief support program for Catholics that focuses on the spiritual side of grieving the death of a loved one. The 6 week program will begin on October 15th @ 6-7:30 pm and will meet once a month. The program invites those who mourn to accompany one another and to meet Christ through scripture, prayer, reflection, and simple activities that offer comfort and help to foster healing and spiritual growth. Please register by contacting Jody North at jnorth@annunciationorlando.org.

CALLING ALL MOMS!

St. Anne's Ministry of Moms is a social, spiritual, and service organization. Our mission is to provide support and fellowship to mothers as they face the joys and challenges of motherhood. Our meetings focus on faith, parenting, and building friendships among mothers and children.

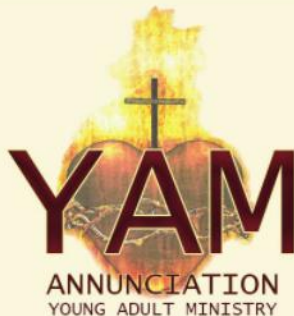

Upcoming Meetings:

- October 16th at 9:30am. We will have a special guest speaker - Jen Settle - speaking on The Power of Silence. Jen is a Consecrated Virgin in the Diocese of Orlando. She has been a staff member at the Theology of the Body Institute in Quarryville, Pennsylvania since 2008, where she currently serves as the Director of Ongoing Formation.

The Power of Silence. How can we hear the voice of the Lord calling us when life is so noisy? Participants will find help in hearing the still, quiet voice of the Lord and learn to encounter Him powerfully in silence.

For more information about meetings, play dates and other functions this Fall please contact us at our new email: Stannesannunciation@gmail.com

St. Theresa of the Little Flower – October 1

Therese Martin (1873-1897), in religious life, Therese of the Child Jesus or the Little Flower, is an endearing saint. Her autobiography, The Story of a Soul, is a spiritual masterpiece that has been the source of spiritual peace for so many who have come to understand her "little way of love." Her spiritual simplicity is described by the word love. "Oh Jesus, my love, at last I have found my proper calling. My call is love."

Her life in the Carmelite Convent in Lisieux was marked by humility, simplicity, and trust in God. The story of how she entered at the young age of 15 is well known. She was a marvelous, saintly example to all in her convent, and offered her life "to save souls and to pray for priests."

Her own words tell her story better than anyone else can. It is an inspiring spiritual odyssey: "Love appeared to me to be the hinge of my vocation. I knew that the Church had a body composed of various members, but in this body the necessary and nobler member was not lacking. I knew that the Church had a heart and that such a heart appeared to be aflame with love. I knew that one love drove the members of the Church to action, that if this love were extinguished, the apostles would have proclaimed the Gospel no longer, the martyrs would have shed their blood no more. I saw and realized that love sets off the bounds of all vocations, that love is everything, that this same love embraces every time and every place. In one word, that love is everlasting."

"Then, nearly ecstatic with the supreme joy in my soul, I proclaimed: O Jesus, my love, at last I have found my calling; my call is love. Certainly I have found my proper place in the Church, and you have given me that very place, my God. In the heart of the Church, My mother, I will be love; and thus I will be all things, as my desire finds its direction."

Theresa's life in the Carmelite convent lasted about nine years. Much of that time she was weak and ill. She died of tuberculosis (now curable) on September 30th, 1897, at the age of 24. She was canonized by Pope Pius XI in 1925, and declared Patroness of the Missions. Shortly before her death, she wrote: "I want to spend my heaven doing good on earth." May we become like little children and follow her little way of love.
