Holy Father's Prayer Intentions

For the prevention of suicide

Let us pray that those who are struggling with suicidal thoughts might find the support, care, and love they need in their community, and be open to the beauty of life.

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

We celebrate, today, the Lateran Basilica in Rome, the mother church of the entire Roman Catholic Church. It was given to the Bishop of Rome in the fourth century and remained the pope's primary residence until the building of St. Peter's Basilica, at a time when the Lateran Basilica was falling into ruins. However, the Lateran Basilica to this day remains the most important Church in the world, since it is officially the Cathedral Church of Rome.

As we honor this church, we honor more than a building. The Lateran Basilica is a symbol of the one true Church of Jesus Christ. Its interior is beautiful and awe-inspiring so as to point us to the unimaginable beauty of the Church Herself, which is the Mystical Body of Christ. Today's Gospel depicts Jesus entering the Temple and driving the money changers out with a whip and the animals they were selling for profit. As He did so, He cried out, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." Psalm 69 is then quoted: Zeal for your house will consume me.

Jesus loves His Church as His own Body—because that is what it is. As His Body, the members of His Church are called and sent to act as His instruments, members of His saving action. Much more than a church building, today we honor the Church Herself—which means we honor you, insofar as you are a member of the Body of Christ. And in light of this Gospel passage for today's Feast, we are reminded of the zeal that our Lord has for the cleansing of His Church.

How is the Church purified? It is purified by the cleansing of Her members. That means that Jesus desires, with perfect zeal, to drive out every sin from your soul, cleansing the filth that keeps you from fulfilling your essential role as a member of His Body.

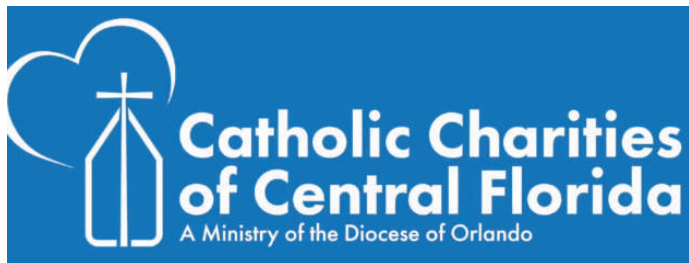

Sometimes we become slack in our own commitment to be purified. We can easily become comfortable with the sins we commit, and we can form habits that are hard to break. When this happens, it is useful to ponder this story of the cleansing of the Temple and see it as Jesus' desire to cleanse our own soul. At times, we need to be shaken up, challenged, confronted and encouraged with the unwavering zeal in the heart of our Lord.

Reflect, today, upon this powerful image of Jesus cleansing the Temple. As you do, apply it to your own life. The people selling and buying in the Temple must have been shocked at Jesus' zeal and actions. If you have become complacent with your sins, try to allow this holy shock to also wake you up. Allow our Lord's zeal to affect you, and know that His purifying actions are acts of love by which He desires to free you to become a more fully functioning member of His holy Church.

GROW IN YOUR FAITH

The Kids Bulletin

We are part of His Church

Today we celebrate a very special church in Rome called the Lateran Basilica. It is the first and oldest church of all Catholic churches. It was built a long, long time ago and given to the pope, who is the Bishop of Rome. Even though St. Peter's Basilica is bigger, the Lateran Basilica is still the most important because it is the pope's own church.

But today we remember more than a building. The church reminds us of the family of God—the whole Church of Jesus. Inside it is beautiful to show how beautiful God's love is for His people.

In the Gospel today, Jesus goes into the Temple and sees people selling animals and changing money. He becomes upset and says, "Stop making my Father's house a marketplace!" Jesus loves His Father's house and wants it to be holy.

Jesus also loves us, because we are part of His Church. Just like He cleaned the Temple, Jesus wants to clean our hearts from sin. Sometimes we forget or get used to doing wrong things, but Jesus helps us to be better and more loving.

Today, think about Jesus cleaning the Temple. Ask Him to help clean your heart too, so you can be close to Him and full of His love.

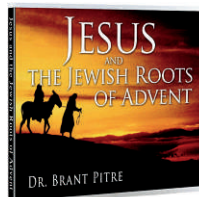

Do you have questions about the Catholic Faith?

Have you been away from the Church... or do you just want to learn more about your faith? Were you raised in another faith or maybe not raised in any faith, but feel called to something deeper? Join us for our next Open Door Session on Tuesday, November 11 in the Nazareth Center at 7pm. For more information, please contact Vicki Ridgeway at 407-869-9472 or vriddgeway@annunciationorlando.org

We are pleased to announce that Madeline White has accepted the role as Youth Minister at our Parish!

Hi everyone! I'm so excited to be a part of the Annunciation community and honored to step into this role as Youth Minister. I am originally from Seattle, WA and moved to Florida to graduate from Rollins College, where I studied Business for Social Change with a focus on sustainability and ethics, and minored in Dance.

My background includes arts education, youth ministry, and social entrepreneurship – and I'm passionate about creating spaces where teens can encounter Christ in real, joyful, and transformative ways. My hope is to see our youth ministry on fire for the Lord, filled with energy, purpose and authentic connection.

Teens get ready – there are some amazing events coming your way! - nights of worship and service, bonfires, and creative retreats! Parents, I would love to connect with you too as we walk alongside your teens in this journey. And if you're a young adult looking to give back, share your faith, and help shape this ministry, I'd love to talk to you about joining our Core Team.

I can't wait to meet you – Contact me at mgwhite@annunciationorlando.org

YOUTH MINISTER

Dedication of St. John Lateran – November 9th

The anniversary of the dedication of the Lateran Basilica – Cathedral of Rome, which was erected by the Emperor Constantine, has been observed on this date since the twelfth century. The name "Lateran" is derived from the Laterani family who donated the land in Rome for the Basilica.

There is an inscription on the outer wall that says (translated into English) that "this Basilica is the mother church of Christendom" – of the world. Celebration of this Feast is a sign of our unity with the Chair of Peter, since the Holy Father's cathedra (official chair) is located in that church. Interestingly, it is believed that the simple wooden table upon which St. Peter celebrated Mass, is located beneath the high altar.

Jesus told us that the kingdom of God is within us. Each of us are sacred, as we are temples of the Holy Spirit. All we need do is open ourselves to Him so that He can shine on the world through us. The elderly lady in the church carried God's presence in a very real way; she was a living temple of God.

Our parish church in which we gather is also God's temple. This means that God's presence here is special, and it means that our presence is special, too. Symbolically, we purify ourselves with holy water as we enter. We recognize the sacramental presence of Jesus Christ, reserved for us in the tabernacle. This is a place for getting in touch with ourselves and with God by praying, praising, interceding, and offering sacrifice together with our brothers and sisters. But it is just one place; there are many other places – our homes, often called the "domestic church," our places of work, and of play.

What we celebrate today on this feast, in a word, is God's presence among us, and in us. All these words are just reminders of the many ways that God is with us, and to make us aware of the treasure that we carry within us: God Himself.

From both a Catholic and mental health perspective, they are part of how God made us, they are signals that invite us to stop, pay attention and make intentional choices. This talk will help you see difficult feelings in a new light, so instead of dreading them, you can learn to use them to help you make informed fruitful choices in your life."
