Holy Father's Prayer Intentions

For prayer with the word of God Let us pray that praying with the word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us to build a more fraternal and missionary Church.

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

John the Baptist was the last of the Old Testament prophets, entrusted with the mission to immediately prepare the way for the Messiah. Today's feast marks a pivotal transition from the Old Law to the New. Prior to Jesus' baptism, John's mission was in full motion. With Jesus' baptism, the mission of the Old Testament prophets is fulfilled, and the New Law of grace begins.

Why did Jesus enter the waters of baptism? He was sinless and had no need of repentance. Yet, in His divine wisdom, Jesus chose to be baptized to sanctify the waters, opening the gateway of grace for all who would follow. By entering the waters of baptism, Jesus set a precedent. Every Christian who enters the waters of baptism meets our Lord there, sharing in His life of grace.

As we reflect on Christ's baptism today, we are invited to consider our own. Most of us were baptized as infants and have no memory of the event. Others came to baptism later in life, fully aware of the grace they were receiving. Regardless of when it occurred, baptism's effects are profound and enduring. That singular moment of sanctification forever changed us, and its transformative power remains active within us.

Baptism occurs only once in our lives and imprints on our souls an "indelible spiritual mark (character)" (see Catechism of the Catholic Church #1272 and 1274). This mark configures us to Christ and signifies our permanent belonging to Him and His Church. It cannot be lost or removed, even by mortal sin. However, while this character endures forever, the state of sanctifying grace within our souls can be lost through mortal sin. In such cases, the grace of baptism is restored through the Sacrament of Reconciliation in which our souls are once again cleansed and brought back into full communion with God. Marked as members of Christ's Body, we are continually disposed to receive sanctifying grace through the other sacraments, as long as we remain in a state of grace. Baptism accomplishes this disposition, enabling us to participate fully in the life of grace that flows from Christ.

As we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, reflect today on your own baptism. You are forever marked as a child of God. You encountered our Lord under the waters of baptism, were cleansed of all sin, and were filled with sanctifying grace. Though sin diminishes or even extinguishes that grace when it is mortal, the Sacrament of Reconciliation restores it, and the Eucharist and other sacraments increase it. Always return to your baptismal grace, seeking to live out your identity as God's son or daughter, as this sacred mark intends.

GROW IN YOUR FAITH

The Kids Bulletin

Children of God

John the Baptist was a special man who helped people get ready for Jesus. He was the last person to tell the world that the King was coming!

Jesus Gets Baptized

One day, Jesus went to the water to be baptized. Jesus was perfect and never did anything wrong, so why did He do it?

- He did it to make the water holy.
- He did it to show us the way.
- He did it so we could follow Him.

A Special Mark on Your Soul

When you were baptized, something amazing happened. God put a special mark on your soul.

- This mark says you belong to God's family forever.
- It never goes away, no matter what.
- It makes you a child of God.

Staying Close to God

Sometimes we make mistakes, and that is called sin. Sin is like dirt on our hearts. But don't worry! God gave us a way to be clean again. When we tell God we are sorry in Confession, He washes our hearts and makes them bright and new, just like the day we were baptized.

Today is a day to be happy! You are a son or daughter of God. He loves you very much. Every time you see water, remember that Jesus is with you and you belong to Him.

Do you have questions about the Catholic Faith?

Have you been away from the Church... or do you just want to learn more about your faith? Were you raised in another faith or maybe not raised in any faith, but feel called to something deeper? Our next session is on Tuesday, January 13th at 7pm in the Nazareth Center. For more information, please contact Vicki Ridgeway at 407-869-9472 or vridgeway@annunciationorlando.org

How can we pray for you?

Everyday life can be challenging and we want to pray for your intentions. We will pray for each specific intention that you submit. Submit your intentions at:

Forgiven: The Transforming Power of Confession

explores the grace and healing offered in Confession and shows how this sacrament of mercy reveals the depth and bounty of God's love. By looking at God's revelation of his mercy in Scripture and making a step-by-step examination of the Rite itself, Forgiven communicates God's invitation to each one of us to come experience his indescribable love in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Our first school Mass of 2026 was a beautiful reminder that God is love.

We reflected on how God shares His love through the sacraments and through the greatest gift of all—Jesus. Celebrating the Epiphany, we remembered how the wise men followed the star to find Christ.

As Annunciation Stars, we are called to do the same—to shine with God's love, live as disciples, and help others find Jesus.

Pillars of Faith

By Fr. Stephen Baumann

St. Basil the Great and St. Gregory of Nazianzen – January 2nd

St. Basil the Great was an ecclesiastical statesman and administrator. He was also a great exponent of Christian doctrine, a defender of orthodoxy. The father of eastern monasticism, and a reformer of the liturgy. In short, he was the outstanding ecclesiastical personality of his time.

St. Basil (329-379) was born in Caesarea (in present day central Turkey). As a young man in his 20's, he resolved to devote his life to God. In a letter (n. 223) he wrote: "I had wasted much time on follies and spent nearly all my youth in vain labors, and devotion to a teaching of a wisdom that God had made foolish. Suddenly, I awoke as out of a deep sleep. I beheld the wonderful light of the Gospel truth...I shed a flood of tears over my wretched life, and I prayed for a guide who might form in me the principles of piety."

He was baptized, and then set out to seek spiritual guidance from the ascetics in the desert. Upon returning home he gave his wealth to the poor, and returned to live austerity in the desert. Soon, others were attracted to him for guidance, and out of that grew the monastic movement to the east.

His talents were outstanding and he was called to Church administration which involved him in ecclesiastical and political disputes involving the Arians (those who denied the divinity of Jesus). He was a prolific writer, and his treatises sermons and letters were admired in his lifetime.

St. Basil and St. Gregory of Nazianzen (330-389), whom we honor together, were contemporaries and friends. They met in school at Caesarea. Gregory later joined Basil in the desert, sharing his interest in monastic life. Reluctantly, he accepted ordination to the priesthood from his father, the Bishop of Arianum. He also was prevailed upon by Basil, already a bishop, to govern the see (diocese) of Nazianzen, and later was named Archbishop of Constantinople.

St. Gregory of Nazianzen is remembered primarily as an eloquent preacher and a poet. His sermons are profoundly theological, surpassing even Basil in the depth of his thought.

Together, Sts. Basil the Great and Gregory of Nazianzen, and Basil's younger brother, St. Gregory of Nyssa were a formidable trio of Doctors/teachers of the Faith at a time when the Church needed to build on their theological foundations.

Annunciation Pilgrimage to Eastern Europe September 13-25 2026

Join us for an information meeting on Thursday,
January 15 at 7pm in the Nazareth Center

Pilgrimage to Eastern Europe

This year's pilgrimage with Father Augustine will be to five countries in Eastern Europe and Father Matthew will be joining us as well. We will start in Budapest, Hungary (2 nights), then Vienna, Austria (2 nights and taking in Bratislava, Slovakia for lunch on the way), Prague, Czech Republic (2 nights), Ostrava, Czech Republic (1 night, to break the journey), Krakow (2 nights) and Warsaw, Poland (2 nights). We will pass from the beautiful churches of the Austro-Hungarian Empire to explore the lives of Pope Saint John Paul II and Saint Faustina. Note that pilgrims need to be able to walk up to five miles a day, manage cobbled streets and steps, and keep up with the group. Numbers will be limited to one bus load, just over 40. Further details are available at www.proximotravel.com under "Clergy Trips". Cost: $5,799.00 Airfare and All-included except lunches & travel insurance.

To register, please contact (855) 842-8001 or
(508) 340-9370, or online.
