Holy Father's Prayer Intentions

For prayer with the word of God

Let us pray that praying with the word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us to build a more fraternal and missionary Church.

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

Central to the Jewish faith was the Feast of Passover, the commemoration of God's deliverance of His people from slavery in Egypt (Exodus 12). In Jesus' time, Passover was one of three major annual feasts during which the Jews made a pilgrimage to the Temple in Jerusalem. Additionally, the Feast of Weeks celebrated the giving of the Law on Mount Sinai and the first fruits of the harvest (Leviticus 23:15-22), and the Feast of Tabernacles recalled the Israelites' wandering in the desert and celebrated God's providence (Leviticus 23:33-43).

Recall the first Passover meal. Moses instructed the people to sacrifice an unblemished lamb, mark the doorposts of their homes with its blood, and eat the lamb with unleavened bread and bitter herbs in haste, ready to depart. This act of faith and obedience protected them from the angel of death who passed over the marked houses, sparing the firstborn of Israel, while striking down the firstborn of Egypt. The Passover thus became a perpetual memorial of God's saving power and His covenantal faithfulness to His people.

Because of the Passover, the idea of a sacrificial lamb was intimately familiar to the Jewish people. The Jews were also familiar with the prophecy in Isaiah 53—often referred to as the Suffering Servant—in which the servant of the Lord is described as “a lamb led to the slaughter,” who bears the sins of many (Isaiah 53:7, 10-12). Additionally, each morning and evening, a lamb was sacrificed in the temple as a continual offering for sin (Exodus 29:38-42).

As Jesus began His public ministry, the first thing said of Him came from John the Baptist: “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.” His words would have resonated within the minds and hearts of John's disciples. His disciples believed that John was a great prophet and the forerunner of the Messiah, sent to prepare the way for the Lord. They saw him as a holy man who called for repentance and renewal, and some even wondered if he himself might be the Christ, though John consistently denied this.

Though John's proclamation about Jesus took on a powerful significance for his disciples that first moment that he revealed Jesus as the Lamb of God, John's words must resonate within each of us today. Now that the Christmas Season is complete and we enter into Ordinary Time, we are invited to embrace Jesus' public ministry, with all His teachings and Paschal Sacrifice, as something extraordinary in our lives. We must approach His ministry with the same hope, enthusiasm, excitement, and anticipation that John's disciples experienced.

GROW IN YOUR FAITH

The Kids Bulletin

Lamb of God

Passover was a special celebration for the Jewish people. It helped them remember how God saved them from being slaves in Egypt. God told Moses to use a lamb to protect the people, and God kept their families safe. This showed that God saves those who trust Him.

Because of Passover, the people knew that a lamb was very important. A lamb was offered to God to ask for forgiveness. Long ago, God promised to send someone who would save His people, like a gentle lamb.

When Jesus began teaching, John the Baptist said, "Jesus is the Lamb of God." John helped people get ready for Jesus. His words showed that Jesus was sent by God to save us.

Today, we can be joyful and excited to follow Jesus and listen to His love and teachings.

St. Hilary of Poitiers, Bishop and Doctor

One of the leading and most respected theologians of his time, St. Hilary of Poitiers (c 315-367) is called in the liturgy, "defender of the divinity of Christ." We marvel at this, since we know that if Christ was not Divine, as well as human, neither his death nor his teachings would have saved us. But this stubborn heresy of Arianism endured for several centuries, even among bishops, some of whom were Arian, and others orthodox.

It was through the study of the scriptures that Hilary was converted from paganism and baptized. Though married, he was elected Bishop of Poitiers about the year 350, and spent the next eighteen years combating Arianism, the heresy that denied the divinity of Christ. At that time, it was as much a political as a theological problem, and Hilary suffered exile for many years because of his staunch defense of Catholic doctrine.

As a theologian, he had the respect of his contemporaries and the gratitude of those who followed him. He was an acknowledged leader of the Western bishops in their struggle against Arianism, and is honored as one of the great Western doctors (teachers) of the Church.

In a sermon on the Trinity, St. Hilary tells of his desire to teach truth:

"I am well aware, almighty God and Father, that in my life I owe you a most particular duty. It is to make my every thought and word speak of you. In fact, you have conferred on me this gift of speech, and it can yield no greater return than to be at your service. It is for making you known as Father, the Father of the only-begotten Son of God, and preaching this to the world that knows you not and to the heretics who refuse to believe in you."

He goes on to express his need to understand the Scriptures and tradition, and concludes with a short prayer: "Impart to us, then, the meaning of the words of Scripture and the light to understand it, with reverence for the teaching and confidence in its truth. Grant that we may express what we believe."

On this feast day of St. Hilary, we pray for a deeper understanding of the mystery of the divinity of Jesus, and the grace to profess it in our day as St. Hilary did in his.

WHERE HEALTH FINDS HOPE

Lately, behind the scenes, there has been a lot of careful, steady work. We've been laying the groundwork for long-term sustainability: securing funding pathways, preparing grant applications, and moving design approvals forward.

We're also coordinating the early stages of construction, building strong organizational systems with trusted partners, and continuing the search for the right clinical leadership to serve our neighbors in need with care and dignity.

Step by step, this space is becoming a place of healing. It's not flashy — but it's how something lasting gets built. Learn more at www.svdppharmacyofhope.org
