Holy Father's Prayer Intentions

For prayer with the word of God Let us pray that praying with the word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us to build a more fraternal and missionary Church.

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

"Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at Hand"

In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus' first public words are, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." These were likewise the words of St. John the Baptist (Matt. 3:2), and now that John has been arrested for speaking inconvenient and uncomfortable truths to the powers-that-be, Jesus takes up the same message with a new authority and urgency.

While we often think of the word "repent" as a Lenten message – a sorrowful self-condemnation for our sins – the Greek word "metanoeite" refers to a deep interior conversion, a reorientation, a change in heart and mind and direction. If we are turning away from something, we must be turning toward something else. Yes, repenting means to turn away from sin, but more importantly, a turning toward God. The Catechism tells us that it is "a radical reorientation of our whole life, a return, a conversion to God with all our heart." (CCC 1431)

Sunday of the Word of God

Observed on the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time - "He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures" (Lk 24:45).

CELEBRATING CATHOLIC SHOOL'S WEEK!

Catholic Schools

The beginning of wisdom is fear of the Lord, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
Proverbs 9:10

In order to turn fully toward God, we must turn away from all that keeps us from seeing Him clearly and drawing near to Him as our loving Father. So while part of repentance is looking at our sin, confessing to a priest, and intending not to sin again, the better part is looking at the Lord, seeing His Truth and Beauty and Goodness, and opening ourselves to love Him more than ourselves, our sin, and our comfort.

Why? Because the Kingdom of Heaven is near; the King has arrived and the reign of God begins now. This Kingdom is not a political or earthly administration of borders and laws, but the reign of the King of Love, present to us in our hearts, in the Word, and in the Sacraments. St. Augustine teaches that the Church is the seed and beginning of this Kingdom on earth; we are made citizens of this Kingdom and true members of the family of the King through Baptism, and we grow to maturity through the Sacraments and prayer and service.

John prepared the way but Jesus is the way, which He will later make clear. This call to "repent" is a call to hope: hope in the loving Heart of the Savior who came to bring reconciliation and peace, hope in the call and value of each and every life, hope in the truth that no one can out-sin God's mercy and love, hope in the certain victory of the Kingdom of Love.

By Kathryn Mulderink

GROW IN YOUR FAITH

The Kids Bulletin

Saying Sorry

Jesus' first words to the people were, "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is near." To repent means to turn back to God. It means saying sorry for our sins and choosing to love God again. When we repent, we turn away from wrong things and turn toward God, who loves us very much.

God wants us to come close to Him. He wants to forgive us, help us, and make our hearts new. The Kingdom of Heaven is near because Jesus is here. Jesus is our King, and He is the King of love.

When we pray, go to church, and try to love others, we live in God's Kingdom. Jesus calls us to repent so we can have hope, joy, and peace with Him.

St. Anthony, Abbot January 17th

What we know of St. Anthony is from St. Athanasius. Born in Egypt, he is honored as the founder of monasticism. St. Athanasius wrote his life story shortly after his death, writing that "you also, once you have heard the story, will not merely admire the man, but will wish to emulate his resolution, as well." Athanasius presents a model of a life consecrated to God. St. Augustine in his Confessions tells us that the book had a decisive influence on his own conversion and on the vocations of others to the monastic life.

Anthony at age 20 took literally the gospel injunction to sell what he had and give it to the poor. For the next 85 years, he lived an austere, ascetical life, devoting himself to prayer, and reading the scriptures. He did manual labor to earn his food, and gave any excess he had to the poor.

Though he preferred solitude, he took time to give guidance and instructions to the many who lived an ascetical life in the desert. He organized them into monasteries, laying the foundation for monasticism.

Another great desire of Anthony's was to be a martyr, but he failed to obtain this grace. Athanasius tells us that he then "went back to his solitary cell; and there he was a daily martyr to his conscience, ever fighting the battles of the faith. For he practiced a zealous and more intense ascetical life." For Anthony, the monk was the successor to the martyr. St. Anthony died in solitude at the age of 105.

He had renounced the world to serve God in the solitude of the desert and was "called the friend of God." We ask through his intercession the grace to keep in proper perspective the material things we have and to live in a spirit of detachment from them through self-denial. We also ask for the grace to understand the love of God above all things.
