Reflection on the Gospel

Today, we are given the beautiful story of Jesus' encounter with the Samaritan woman at Jacob's Well. Jesus is resting by the well when a Samaritan woman approaches at noon, during the heat of the day, most likely to avoid the scorn of other women who looked down on her. Jesus then does something that greatly surprises her: He asks her for a drink of water.

Jews used nothing in common with Samaritans, yet Jesus was willing to drink from her utensil. When she questioned Him, Jesus responded, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."

The "living water" Jesus desired to give was the spiritual gift of grace to renew and refresh her soul. His divine eyes saw her spiritual hunger, and His compassion moved Him to free her from her burdens.

Why would Jesus bring up her humiliating situation—five failed marriages and now living with a man who was not her husband? Because she had clearly been searching for fulfillment her whole life, left dry and thirsty. By speaking this way, Jesus lets her know He sees her completely, loves her, and longs to satisfy the longing she has carried for so long. He does not judge or condemn; He invites her to freedom. Overjoyed, she left her water jar behind—symbolizing she was no longer spiritually thirsty—and told the townspeople, "Come see a man who told me everything I have done. Could he possibly be the Christ?"

Each of us needs to see ourselves in this woman. The guilt of hidden sins weighs us down and leaves us thirsty. If we identify with her, we can expect the same compassion from Jesus. Too often we hide our sins—justifying, downplaying, or ignoring them. Freedom only comes by allowing our Lord to reveal our sins, facing them, and encountering God's abundant mercy.

Don't run from your past—confront it, confess it, and receive the living water of mercy. The holier you become, the more clearly you will see even your smallest sins. That is good and necessary if we want to be healed by God. Let shame and guilt dissipate within His abundant mercy so that, like this woman, you will know that God sees you through and through—and loves you despite your sin.

Fasting

Fasting and Abstinence

Fasting is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all 18 years of age and older who have not yet celebrated their 59th birthday. On a fast day one full meal is allowed. Two other meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Abstinence is observed on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and on all other Fridays of Lent by all 14 years of age and older. On days of abstinence no meat is allowed. Remember: If your health or your ability to work would be seriously affected, fasting or abstinence does not apply. If in doubt please speak with one of our Priests or Deacons.

The Kids Bulletin

Thirsty

One day, Jesus was sitting by a well. He was tired and thirsty. A woman came to get some water. Jesus asked her, "Can I have a drink of water?"

This surprised her. Jesus and the woman were from different groups of people who did not talk to each other. But Jesus was kind to her anyway.

Jesus told her, "I can give you special water. If you drink it, you will never be thirsty again." He was not talking about regular water. He meant something even better - God's love filling up your heart.

Jesus knew that the woman had made a lot of bad choices in her life. She felt sad and ashamed. But Jesus did not yell at her or say mean things. He was gentle and kind. He wanted her to feel better.

The woman was so happy after talking to Jesus! She forgot all about her water jar and ran to tell everyone in town. She said, "Come meet a man who knows everything about me! Could He be the one God promised to send us?"

We are all like that woman. Sometimes we do things that are wrong, and it makes us feel sad inside. But Jesus knows everything we have done - and He loves us anyway!

We do not need to hide the bad things we have done. We can tell Jesus we are sorry. When we do, He fills our hearts with His love. That love is like a big drink of cool water on a very hot day.

St. John of God, Religious

The life of St. John of God reads like a novel, an odyssey adventure of a free-spirited young man. He ran away from home at the age of 8, grew up rather irresponsibly, and enlisted at the age of 27 in military service. After serving in wars between Spain and France and in Hungary against the Turks, he became an overseer of slaves in Morocco, then returned to Spain to tend sheep.

When he was 40, he came to the realization that he needed to change his life. He decided to go to Africa to ransom Christian slaves and possibly be martyred. But realizing he was not properly motivated spiritually, he returned to Spain, where he earned his living selling holy cards and books in a successful shop in Granada.

John returned to his senses with great peace, and in 1539 began working among the sick-poor. He attracted monetary support and followers because of his devout life and humility. Twenty years after his death, these helpers formed the Brothers Hospitallers, or Brothers of St. John of God. After working tirelessly for over ten years, John became ill himself, eventually allowing a friend, Lady Anne Ossorio, to care for him. He died on March 8, 1550, at age 55, and was canonized in 1690.

There is a lesson here. John was a late bloomer as far as sanctity is concerned — his first real efforts began at age 40, telling us it is never too late to start. Here we have someone most people can identify with. We know we can change for the better, and a little push in the right direction is all we need. There is nothing in our past that should keep us from stronger efforts, and there are so many opportunities around us for sanctity.
