Reflection on the Gospel

The commemoration of our Lord's Passion has begun. Today, Mass begins with Matthew's account of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Riding on a donkey, Jesus is greeted by a large crowd who "spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and strewed them on the road" (Matthew 21:8), welcoming Him with shouts of: "Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest" (Matthew 21:9).

The word "Hosanna" in Hebrew means "Save us, we pray!" Though originally a plea for deliverance, it became an expression of praise and joy, especially as it came to be associated with the Messiah's arrival. The phrase "Hosanna in the highest" calls for God, enthroned in Heaven, to bring His saving power to earth — revealing both a hope for salvation and a recognition of Jesus as the long-awaited Messiah.

During Passover week, Jerusalem's population swelled with pilgrims from across Israel. The atmosphere was vibrant with religious fervor, and the Temple was central to the festivities. Roman authorities increased security, wary of potential unrest, as the commemoration of Israel's liberation stirred hopes of national deliverance. The Jewish authorities were also on high alert, concerned that any disturbance might provoke harsh Roman reprisals.

This public acclaim highlighted why some saw Jesus as a threat. The Pharisees feared that His messianic identity might undermine their religious authority, and most dismissed the possibility that He was the Messiah they awaited.

Jesus, however, had a very different understanding of that Passover. He knew it was the time for His suffering and death, leading to His glorification. His sole desire was to fulfill His mission by becoming the one perfect Lamb of Sacrifice whose blood would atone for the sins of many. Though He knew the suffering that awaited Him, His gaze was fixed on saving souls — and in His sacred humanity, He overcame every temptation to fear or anxiety, allowing peace, strength, and joy to fill His heart.

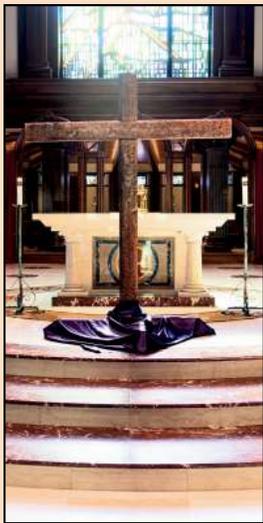

Not only is Jesus our Savior and the one Mediator between God and us, His human life perfectly models how we are to live. His triumphal entry into Jerusalem models how we are to face every difficult situation that tempts us to fear and anxiety. His courage must become our courage, and His determination our determination.

The Veneration and Adoration of the Cross on Good Friday

One of the Church's most treasured liturgical traditions is the adoration of the Cross at the Liturgy of the Passion of the Lord on Good Friday. Most of us will have memories of individual veneration, kissing or touching the wood of the Cross, but where there is a large congregation the Church has foreseen that there is a real practical problem - a lengthy time of veneration destroys the integrity of a beautiful and balanced liturgy which is about the Lord, not about us. The Roman Missal instructs: "If, because of the large number of people, it is not possible for all to approach individually", the Priest is to take the Cross, stand in the middle, and invite the people all together to adore the Holy Cross in silence. Once again, we will adore the cross together at Annunciation, precisely as happens at Saint Peter's in Rome; all simply kneel at their places for a brief time of adoration. However, as the Missal says, at the end of the ceremony "the Cross remains" and when the clergy have departed in silence, you will be able to come and venerate the sacred wood. The church building will stay open until 5:30pm.

The Kids Bulletin

Palm Sunday

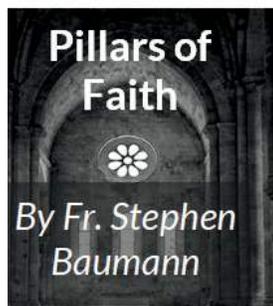

Today is a special day in our Church. We remember when Jesus came to Jerusalem to save us.

A big crowd was waiting for Him. They were so happy! They put their coats on the road and waved branches from the trees. They shouted, "Hosanna! Blessed is Jesus who comes in the name of the Lord!"

"Hosanna" means "Save us, please!" The people loved Jesus and believed He was sent from God. Jerusalem was very busy that week. Lots of people had come to celebrate a special holy time called Passover. But some leaders were not happy to see Jesus. They were afraid of Him and did not believe He was the Son of God.

Jesus knew why He had come. He was not there to be a king with a crown and a palace. He came to give His life for us — to take away our sins and bring us back to God. Even though hard things were coming, Jesus was brave and full of love.

Jesus shows us how to be brave too. When we feel scared or worried, we can ask Jesus to give us that same courage.

St. Turibius of Mongrovejo, Bishop

St. Turibius of Mongrovejo (1538-1606) was Archbishop of Lima, Peru. Born in Spain, he was educated in law. Later, he taught law at the University of Salamanca, a noted theological center. Due to his brilliance, he was appointed chief judge of the Inquisition at Granada. He performed his office so well that he was chosen to fill the Archbishop's post in Lima. He objected that as a layman, it was against Canon Law, but was prevailed upon to accept the office. He was then ordained priest and bishop and set out for Peru, arriving in Lima in 1581 at 43 years old.

The task facing him was enormous, but he set about carrying out the reforms mandated by the Council of Trent. (1545-1563). That Church council was concerned with two things – ending corruption and solidifying church teachings in the face of the Protestant Reformation.

He corrected the laxity of the clergy, sternly eradicating abuses, such as the selling of indulgences. He spoke out against injustices and championed the cause of the poor. He worked tirelessly throughout his vast diocese and endeared himself to all by his devotion, his teaching, and his missionary zeal.

Without hesitation, he faced up to opposition. A story is told that when those he was correcting objected and tried to justify their behaviors as "tradition," he replied: "Christ said, 'I am the truth'; He did not say 'I am the custom.'"

St. Turibius fell ill early in 1606, in his twenty-fifth year as bishop, and he died on March 23rd. He was canonized in 1731 as "a model of holiness, apostolic zeal, and one unwavering in truth." (Cf. Opening Prayer of Mass)

Donate to Help Send Our Teens to Covecrest This Summer!

This summer, our parish teens have the opportunity to attend LifeTeen Covecrest Camp - a transformative experience of faith, community, and encounter with Christ. The cost is $850 per teen, and we don't want finances to be a barrier for any young person who feels called to go. Would you prayerfully consider making a gift to help offset the cost? Every contribution - large or small - makes a real difference in the life of a young Catholic. To donate, bring a check to the Parish Office or simply scan the QR code below to visit www.annunciationorlando.org/ltcamp.

Thank you for investing in the next generation of our faith community!

Triduum: A Spiritual Pilgrimage

Triduum: A Spiritual Pilgrimage cinematically walks through the locations of the Holy Week story, representing the most important days of human history. Immersed in the Holy Land, the pilgrim is brought tangibly nearer to the story, the landscape, and the reality of the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The Last Days: The Passion and Death of Jesus the Christ w/ Jonathan Roumie

This filmed presentation of the theatrical production movingly recreates the final moments of Jesus' earthly ministry as a teacher through His crucifixion and death. The play has been seen by thousands worldwide, not only as a live performance but also in live streams and televised broadcasts.

Understanding Palm Sunday

Focusing on the Biblical account of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem, Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Ben Akers break open the meaning of why Jesus rode on a donkey, the significance of the palm branches and the singing of Hosanna, and how this event launched Holy Week and the redemption of the world.
