Reflection on the Gospel

Do you believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through that belief you will inherit eternal life? Belief begins with an intellectual assent but must continuously deepen. The belief Saint John speaks of in today's Gospel is one that draws us deeper into the mystery of Christ's Paschal Mystery—His Life, Death, and Resurrection—so as to receive the gift of His abundant and transforming Mercy.

Today is the eighth day of Easter. The Church, in Her wisdom, celebrates the most important days of the liturgical year for eight days. Historically, there were a number of feasts celebrated with octaves: Easter, Epiphany, Corpus Christi, Ascension, All Saints, and in some locales, the Sacred Heart and various Marian feasts. After Vatican II, the Church focused on two—Christmas and Easter—so as to give greater emphasis to the core of the Paschal Mystery.

In the year 2000, the Octave of Easter took on a new focus when Pope John Paul II instituted the Solemnity of Divine Mercy on the eighth day of Easter. This was done in response to Jesus' personal request, communicated to the Church through a humble cloistered Polish nun. Canonized in 2000, she is known as Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska.

Between 1931 and 1938, Sister Faustina received numerous mystical visions that she recorded in six notebooks, now referred to collectively as Divine Mercy in My Soul: Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska.

When we reflect on this beautiful private revelation in the light of today's Gospel, we are invited to consider that even though the Gospels present us with all we need to know in order to come to faith in Christ and share in the new life He bestows, the treasure of His Divine Mercy is inexhaustible. Just as "Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book," so also the depths of His ongoing work, His Divine Mercy, will only be seen in Heaven.

Divine Mercy Sunday is a day on which we are to profess our belief in this Mercy. To do so, we must ponder these inexhaustible treasures, probe their depths with the aid of Saint Faustina's private revelations, and then allow our Lord to reveal them to us within the depths of our souls.

Donate to Help Send Our Teens to Covecrest This Summer!

This summer, our parish teens have the opportunity to attend LifeTeen Covecrest Camp - a transformative experience of faith, community, and encounter with Christ. The cost is $850 per teen, and we don't want finances to be a barrier for any young person who feels called to go. Would you prayerfully consider making a gift to help offset the cost? Every contribution - large or small - makes a real difference in the life of a young Catholic. To donate, bring a check to the Parish Office or simply scan the QR code below to visit www.annunciationorlando.org/ltcamp.

Thank you for investing in the next generation of our faith community!

Jesus I Trust in You

Do you believe that Jesus is the Son of God? Believing in Jesus is very important! And the more we learn about Him, the more our belief can grow.

Today is a special day called Divine Mercy Sunday. It is the eighth day of Easter. That means we have been celebrating Easter for eight whole days! The Church does this because Easter is so important.

What is mercy? Mercy means love that forgives and helps. Jesus has so much mercy for us — more than we can even imagine!

A long time ago, there was a kind nun in Poland named Sister Faustina. Jesus appeared to her and told her about His great mercy. She wrote everything down in special notebooks so we could all learn about it.

The Church recognized Sister Faustina as a saint twenty five years ago. We call her Saint Faustina. On this special day, we remember how much Jesus loves us and forgives us. His mercy never runs out — it goes on and on forever!

We can ask Jesus to help us believe in His mercy more and more. And one day in Heaven, we will see just how great His love really is.

St. Isidore of Seville, Bishop and Doctor – April 4th

The seventy-six years of St. Isidore's life (560-636) were a time of conflict and growth for the church in Spain. The Visigoths had invaded the land a century and a half earlier and shortly before Isidore's birth, they set up their own capital. They were Arians – Christians who said that Christ was a great prophet but not God. Thus, Spain was split in two: One people (Catholic Romans) struggled with another (Arian Goths).

Isidore reunited Spain, making it a center of culture and learning, a teacher and guide for other European countries whose culture was also threatened by barbarian invaders. Born in Cartagena of a family that included three other saints, he was educated by his older brother, whom he succeeded as bishop of Seville.

An amazingly learned man, he was sometimes called "The Schoolmaster of the Middle Ages" because the encyclopedia he wrote was used as a textbook for nine centuries. He required seminaries to be built in every diocese, wrote a Rule for religious orders and founded schools that taught every branch of learning. Isidore wrote numerous books, including a dictionary, an encyclopedia, a history of Goths and a history of the world – beginning with creation! He completed the Mozarabic liturgy, which is still in use in Toledo, Spain.

He continued his austerities even as he approached eighty. During the last six months of his life, he increased his charities so much that his house was crowded from morning until night with the poor of the countryside. Our own country could well use Isidore's spirit of combining learning and holiness. Loving, understanding knowledge can heal and bring a broken people back together. We are not barbarians like the invaders of Isidore's Spain. But people who are swamped by material wealth and overwhelmed by scientific and technological advances can lose much of their understanding love for one another. So vast was Isidore's knowledge that some have proposed him as a patron of Internet users.
