Reflection on the Gospel

The Fourth Sunday of Easter invites us to rejoice in the tender and faithful love of Jesus, our Good Shepherd. In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that His sheep know His voice. This is not meant to frighten us or make us anxious about whether we are following perfectly. Rather, it is meant to comfort us. Jesus knows us personally. He calls each of us by name. He does not lead us from a distance but walks with us, protects us, and gently guides us.

There is something beautiful about the trust that exists between a shepherd and his sheep. The shepherd spends time with them. He watches over them day and night. He leads them to safety, to green pastures, and to still waters. In the same way, Jesus desires to be close to us. He speaks to us in prayer, in Scripture, through the sacraments, and in the quiet movements of our hearts. The more we spend time with Him, the more familiar His voice becomes.

In the Gospel, Jesus is speaking after He healed the man born blind. While the healed man was open to Jesus and came to believe in Him, the Pharisees remained closed off. They struggled to recognize the Lord standing before them because they were too attached to their own expectations and ways of thinking. The blind man, however, responded with humility and trust. Though he had once been physically blind, he came to see Jesus clearly through faith.

This is a reminder for all of us. We do not need to have everything figured out. We do not need to be perfect. We simply need hearts that are open. The Good Shepherd is always calling us, always seeking us, always leading us back when we wander. Even when we feel lost, uncertain, or burdened, Jesus never abandons us. His voice is one of peace, mercy, encouragement, and truth.

Today is a beautiful day to thank Jesus for being our Good Shepherd. He knows the struggles we carry. He sees our fears, our wounds, and our hopes. Yet He never stops loving us. He walks before us, clearing the path, and invites us to follow Him with trust.

Blessed are they who seek Him with all their heart.

Thank you for your generosity. As of 4/17 we have $645,486 in pledges toward our parish goal of $743,109. Participation: 632 of 4141 (15.3%)

The Good Shepherd

Jesus is our Good Shepherd. He loves us and takes care of us.

In the Gospel, Jesus says His sheep know His voice. Jesus knows each of us by name. He stays close to us, helps us, and keeps us safe.

A shepherd loves his sheep. He watches over them day and night. He leads them to grass and water. Jesus does the same for us. He speaks to us in prayer, at church, and in our hearts.

Jesus healed a man who was blind. The man believed in Jesus. But some people did not listen to Him. They did not want to follow Him.

Jesus wants us to listen to His voice. We do not have to be perfect. We just need to trust Him.

When we are sad, scared, or lost, Jesus is with us. He never leaves us. He leads us with love and peace.

Today, thank Jesus for being your Good Shepherd. Listen for His voice and follow Him each day.

In the Footsteps of St. Francis Xavier on the Southern Coasts

Pilgrimage to Catholic India. January 25 to February 6, 2027

Unexpectedly Father Augustine has been asked to act as chaplain for a pilgrimage to South India and Goa, the two great Catholic areas of the country. It is a twelve-night trip, with ten days in India, involving flying to Chennai (two-night stay), five nights at different hotels to travel across South India, a flight to Goa, and a three-night stay there before the return to Orlando. The base price flying from Orlando is $6,323, but they are offering a $200 discount to people who sign up before the end of the month if you mention my name. The trip is arranged by 206 Tours, an upmarket pilgrimage company, so the hotels are nearly all resorts with pools and all meals are included. There will, of course, be Mass every day but we will also see Hindu temples, markets and other monuments. The group will be between 18 and 33. Details here: <https://www.206tours.com/cms/frclark> or speak to Father Augustine after Mass.

The Knights of Columbus and the Council of Catholic Women are hosting a pancake breakfast fundraiser for the JMJ Pregnancy Center on Sunday, April 26th, from 8am to noon in the St. Gabriel Life Center. While there will be no charge for the breakfast, we are asking for monetary donations to be made to JMJ. All are welcome!

Pillars of Faith

by Fr. Stephen Baumann

St. Anselm, Bishop, Doctor – April 21st

What St. Augustine was for the Church in the fifth century, St. Anselm of Canterbury was for the eleventh century and thereafter. Both are noted for their originality and depth of thought. Like St. Augustine, Anselm was an original and an independent thinker, admired as a skillful teacher, patient and gentle as abbot and as bishop. Anselm's biographer, Eadmer, says that his whole life was characterized by "benevolence, kindness, love, gentleness, meekness, pardon, smiling exhortation." And these same characteristics are found in his writings.

These are the bare facts of his life: He was born in Piedmont in Northern Italy in 1033, and as a young man was indifferent toward religion, even though he wanted to enter a monastery at age 15. His father objected, so he went on as indifferent as before. Finally, at age 27, he entered the famous Benedictine monastery at Bec in Normandy. Within three years, he was prior, and fifteen years after that he was elected abbot. He was then 45 years old. At age 60, he became Archbishop of Canterbury.

He wrote that to pray one must first withdraw or go apart: "Come now, little man, turn aside for a while from your daily employment, escape for a moment from the tumult of your thoughts... Enter into the inner chamber of your soul, shut out everything except God and that which can help you in seeking him, and when you have shut the door, seek him."

The next step is to ask the help of God. "Teach me to seek you." Anselm said of his writings on prayer: "I have written from the viewpoint of someone trying to raise his mind to contemplation of God and seeking to understand what he believes."

We are blessed that we have such rich thoughts to reflect upon in our search for God. Like St. Anselm we pray that our faith will lead us to understanding of the sublime truths that God has revealed. St. Anselm died in 1109 after ministering as Archbishop of Canterbury for sixteen years. He vigorously defended the freedom of the Church against interference by monarchs. He was diligent in his care for the poor, and he was the first theologian to denounce the slave trade which he called "the selling of men like cattle." He was declared a Doctor (Teacher) of the Church in 1720.
