Reflection on the Gospel

The feeling of being an orphan—of longing for belonging—reflects a deeper spiritual reality Jesus addressed with His disciples in today's Gospel. Those with close families are truly blessed, as a supportive family fosters personal growth and a sense of identity. When one is orphaned, the absence of these natural bonds can leave a lasting sense of loss. Yet even the strongest earthly family relationships point to a greater truth: our ultimate belonging is found in God's family.

Jesus understood the sense of loss His disciples would feel after His Passion, Resurrection, and Ascension. When He said, "In a little while the world will no longer see me..." He was preparing them for His physical departure through the Ascension. But He reassures them: "I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you... you will see me, because I live and you will live."

Initially, the disciples struggled to grasp the meaning of these words. Only after the outpouring of the Holy Spirit did they begin to understand. The same promise Jesus made to them applies to us today. Though we were not among those who witnessed His earthly presence, we too have a longing for His nearness—a longing to belong, to be loved, and to find our place within a family. This longing is fulfilled supernaturally through the gift of faith and our incorporation into God's divine family, the Church.

Faith is the key to this relationship. It is more than intellectual belief; it is the acceptance of a personal revelation from God and a choice to live according to that revelation. Jesus promises that those who love Him and obey His commandments will experience His presence and that of the Father. This experience begins through faith, which is a gift by which God communicates Himself to us, revealing His love and will. It is both certain and mysterious, a knowledge that leads us to divine hope and sustains us in the pursuit of God's will.

Faith also unites us with one another. Through faith, we are no longer orphans but brothers and sisters in Christ. Our natural longing to belong finds its ultimate fulfillment in God's glorious family, which begins on earth and is perfected in Heaven.

ADULT CONFIRMATION

Are you an adult who has not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation?

For most of us, the Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated when we were either in junior high or in high school. For those adults in the OCIA, their Confirmation is celebrated when they are baptized at the Easter Vigil. But, for a variety of reasons, many adult Catholics have not yet been confirmed.

THIS INVITATION IS FOR YOU!

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program.

CLASSES HAVE JUST BEGUN:

Tuesdays at 7:00 PM in the Nazareth Center.

CONFIRMATION WILL BE:

at the Cathedral on Sunday, June 21st.

TO FIND OUT MORE:

Contact Vicki Ridgeway at 407-869-9472 or vridgeway@annunciationorlando.org

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful.

Do you have questions about the Catholic Faith?

Have you been away from the Church... or do you just want to learn more about your faith? Were you raised in another faith or maybe not raised in any faith, but feel called to something deeper?

Join us for our next Open Door Session on Tuesday, May 19th at 7pm in the Nazareth Center.

For more information, please contact Vicki Ridgeway at 407-869-9472 or vridgeway@annunciationorlando.org

A Tradition of Excellence in Early Childhood Education

WE HAVE OPENINGS FOR FALL 2026!

Established in 1992, Annunciation Catholic Preschool (ACP) is dedicated to providing high-quality care and early childhood education in a nurturing, faith-filled environment. Serving children from six weeks old through pre-K, ACP offers a curriculum designed to foster academic, social, emotional, and spiritual growth. With a team of highly trained and compassionate educators, ACP ensures that each child receives the support and encouragement needed to thrive.

Believing that children learn best through active participation, ACP provides engaging and developmentally appropriate learning experiences. Parents are welcomed as active partners in their child's education through the T.E.A.M. (Together Everyone Achieves More) parent organization, reinforcing a strong sense of community and collaboration.

Family

Sometimes we feel alone, like we don't belong. Jesus knew His friends would feel this way. But He told them something very important.

Jesus said, "I will not leave you alone. I will come to you."

Jesus went back to Heaven, but He did not leave us. He is still with us. He loves us and stays close to us.

We all want to belong and be loved. God gives us a family—His family. This family is the Church.

When we believe in Jesus and follow Him, we are part of God's family. We are not alone. We are brothers and sisters in Christ.

Faith means we trust Jesus and listen to Him. When we do, we feel His love in our hearts.

God made us to belong to Him. And one day, we will be with Him forever in Heaven.

Seasons of Hope

Bringing Comfort through Catholic Grief Support

Next Session: Wednesday, May 13th

"Seasons of Hope" is a unique grief support program for Catholics that focuses on the spiritual side of grieving the death of a loved one. The program is led by Dr. Curran and will meet once a month from 6-7:30 pm in the St. Gabriel Life Center. The program invites those who mourn to accompany one another and to meet Christ through scripture, prayer, reflection, and simple activities that offer comfort and help to foster healing and spiritual growth.

PLEASE REGISTER by contacting Jody North at jnorth@annunciationorlando.org

Pillars of Faith

by Fr. Stephen Baumann

Sts. Philip and James, Apostles

From the Gospels we know St. Philip as one of the twelve apostles. His name appears in all four lists (Matthew, Mark, Luke and Acts). He came from Bethsaida in Galilee, was called by Jesus himself, and in turn brought Nathaniel (also known as Bartholomew) to Jesus. In the Gospel of John, it is Philip who engages with Jesus in a brief exchange on the occasion of the multiplication of the loaves (Jn 6:5, 7). Also, it was Philip who was approached by some Hellenist Jews who wanted to be introduced to Jesus. Fr. John McKenzie suggests that he was regarded as being closely associated with Jesus. However, of his later life we know nothing.

St. James, the cousin of the Lord, son of Alphaeus, is also mentioned in the same four lists of apostles. Sometimes, he is referred to in literature as James the Less, or James the younger, to distinguish him from James the "brother of the Lord," who is also mentioned in the gospels (Mt. 13:55 and Mark 6:3, and in Acts 12:17, as the bishop of the Jerusalem community, martyred in the year 62, and author of the letter.

The Second Vatican Council, in the Decree on the Church's Missionary Activity, recalls for us the role of the apostles: "From the beginning of his ministry, the Lord Jesus called to him those whom he wished, and he caused twelve of them to be with him and to be sent out preaching...Thus the apostles were both the seeds of the new Israel and the beginning of the sacred hierarchy. Later, before he ascended into heaven, the Lord who had received all power in heaven and on earth, founded his Church as the sacrament of salvation, and just as he had been sent by the Father...so he sent the apostles into the whole world. Hence, the Church has an obligation to proclaim the faith and salvation which comes from Christ."

As we remember the holy apostles, Philip and James, we recall that the commission given to the apostles to "make disciples of all the nations," is now our commission.

THE SANCTUARY YOUTH SERIES

The Sanctuary Youth Series | Trailer

The Sanctuary Youth Series is centered on the pressing questions that young people are asking about faith and mental health. It provides space to engage these questions and start important conversations in youth ministries and church communities. Drawing on insights from mental health professionals, theologians, and evidence-based research, this educational and interactive course is designed to reduce stigma, increase awareness, and prepare students for a faith journey that includes seasons of flourishing and languishing.
