Reflection on the Gospel

The mission of the Apostles was not merely to gain new followers but to proclaim the Gospel to every nation. Additionally, they were to baptize all nations and teach them everything Jesus had commanded.

This incredible task would have seemed daunting, if not impossible. Yet it is grounded in divine authority: "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore..." These are not mere words of encouragement but a divine command, rooted in the authority entrusted to Jesus by the Father. With this declaration, Jesus equips the Apostles with the grace to fulfill their mission, knowing they act under His authority.

The Ascension marks a fundamental transition in salvation history. Before the Incarnation, God established covenants with His people and sent prophets to call them to fidelity and prepare them for the coming of the Messiah. With Jesus' Incarnation, a new era of salvation history began. Through His Passion and Resurrection, Jesus opened the floodgates of grace and inaugurated the final phase of God's eternal plan. This phase continues today and will only reach its fulfillment when Christ returns in glory to judge the living and the dead and establish the new Heaven and new Earth.

Because we live in this final phase of salvation history, Jesus' words to His Apostles also apply to us. We are not only among the "all nations" called to be disciples, but we also share in the Apostles' mission to evangelize the world. While the Apostles, as the first bishops, had a unique role, every baptized person participates in Christ's mission through the priestly, prophetic, and kingly offices conferred at baptism.

The recently canonized Saint John Henry Newman beautifully illustrates this shared mission in a prayer he wrote: "God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission...I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons..." Each of us has a unique role to play, and we can be certain that God has given us some definite service to act as a link in a chain and a bond of connection between God and others.

Newman continues: "If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him, in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him." This reminds us that Jesus, the all-powerful God who holds "all power in heaven and on earth," can use every aspect of our lives for His glory and mission—if we let Him.

ADULT CONFIRMATION

Are you an adult who has not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation?

For most of us, the Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated when we were either in junior high or in high school. For those adults in the OCIA, their Confirmation is celebrated when they are baptized at the Easter Vigil. But, for a variety of reasons, many adult Catholics have not yet been confirmed.

THIS INVITATION IS FOR YOU!

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program.

CLASSES HAVE JUST BEGUN:

Tuesdays at 7:00 PM in the Nazareth Center.

The Kids Bulletin

Tell Everyone the Good News

What a big job Jesus gave the Apostles! When He went up to Heaven. Jesus told His friends to go and tell everyone in the world about Him. He told them to baptize people and teach them to follow His ways.

This job may have seemed very hard. But Jesus reminded them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me." Jesus was with them and would help them. They did not have to do this work alone.

Jesus' words were not only for the Apostles. They are also for us. Everyone who is baptized is called to share God's love with others. We can help people know Jesus by our words and by the way we live.

Saint John Henry Newman wrote that God made each person for a special purpose. Each of us has something important to do for God and for other people.

He also said that even hard times can help us serve God. When we are sick, confused, or sad, Jesus can still use our lives for good. Jesus is powerful and loving, and He can work through everything if we trust Him.

Pillars of Faith

by Fr. Stephen Baumann

Sts. Nereus and Achileus, Martyrs – May 12

Two first century martyrs are honored today, Nereus and Achileus, both soldiers, who gave up their military careers upon becoming Christians. They were then condemned to death, one tradition says by beheading, another by being burned to death. We honor them "for their courage in dying to profess their faith in Christ." (Collect of Mass)

They were buried in a ceremony on the Ardeantine Way where a basilica was eventually built in their honor. In the fourth century, Pope St. Damasus wrote an epitaph for their tombstones at their place of burial. It reads:

"The Martyrs Nereus and Achileus had enrolled themselves in the army and exercised the cruel office of carrying out the orders of the tyrant Emperor Trajan, being ever ready, through the constraint of fear, to obey his will. O miracle of faith! Suddenly they ceased from their fury, they became converted, they flew from the camp of their wicked leader; they threw away their shields, their armor and their blood-stained javelins. Confessing the faith of Christ, they rejoiced to bear testimony to its triumph. Learn now from the words of Damasus what great things the glory of Christ can accomplish."

Cardinal John Henry Newman wrote: "No one is a martyr for a conclusion; no one is a martyr for an opinion; it is faith that makes martyrs."

Saint Rita

St. Rita of Cascia is immortalized in this wonderful, deeply moving film. This story is about the brave woman who married her knight, helped him overcome his dark past and convert to faith, happily bore him two children, and later endures immense pain as she loses everything in her life. Her story and love for Christ will inspire you to great holiness!
