Novena to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

This Novena to the Sacred Heart of Jesus draws its daily devotions from the Litany of the Sacred Heart.

Each day reflects on the wisdom of saints and pontiffs on the Sacred Heart and offers opportunities for prayer and action, framed by Pope Francis' encyclical Dilexit Nos (He Loved Us) and Pope Leo XIV's apostolic exhortation Dilexi Te (I Have Loved You).

The novena concludes with the consecration of the United States to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Reflection on the Gospel

Saint John the Apostle is identified in his Gospel as “the disciple whom Jesus loved,” a title that appears multiple times and has been consistently understood in the Church’s tradition to refer to John himself.

By calling himself the beloved disciple, John was revealing his interior experience of the perfect love he encountered in Jesus. Certainly, Jesus loved everyone—equally and without limit. Yet John includes this personal designation not to claim favoritism, but to offer a personal testimony to the divine love made manifest in Christ’s humanity—love he experienced firsthand and which changed his life.

Love plays a central role in John’s writings—not only in his Gospel but also in his letters and the Book of Revelation. In his First Letter, likely written to the Christian communities he helped convert and shepherd, John declares: “God is love, and whoever remains in love remains in God and God in him” (1 John 4:16). This is both a personal sentiment and a profound theological affirmation. John speaks from both divine inspiration and lived experience; he had walked with Love Incarnate. To say “God is love” is to profess that love is not something God merely does—it is who God is. God’s love is not a feeling, not sentimentality, but the pure, self-giving, eternal communion of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—a love that precedes and surpasses all creation.

That mystery lies at the very heart of today’s Solemnity. Because God is Love in His very essence, love naturally flows from His divine nature in superabundance. God loves because He is Love. Today’s Gospel reveals the most perfect expression of that divine essence: “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son...” This eternal, Trinitarian love is made visible in time when the Father sends the Son, conceived by the overshadowing of the Holy Spirit in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Why does God give His Son? So that we might not perish but have eternal life. That is, so we may be drawn into the very life of God—into the Trinitarian communion of love. God desires to rescue us from condemnation and to share with us His Divine Existence.

This is the essence of Divine Love. This is the Trinity. And this is the astonishing invitation extended to every soul: To believe in the Son is to begin participating in the eternal love that flows ceaselessly between the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit—a love that never ends. We are invited to be caught up by the love of God into Love Himself: the eternal communion of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

A Tradition of Excellence in Early Childhood Education

WE HAVE OPENINGS FOR FALL 2026!

Established in 1992, Annunciation Catholic Preschool (ACP) is dedicated to providing high-quality care and early childhood education in a nurturing, faith-filled environment. Serving children from six weeks old through pre-K, ACP offers a curriculum designed to foster academic, social, emotional, and spiritual growth. With a team of highly trained and compassionate educators, ACP ensures that each child receives the support and encouragement needed to thrive.

Believing that children learn best through active participation, ACP provides engaging and developmentally appropriate learning experiences. Parents are welcomed as active partners in their child's education through the T.E.A.M. (Together Everyone Achieves More) parent organization, reinforcing a strong sense of community and collaboration.

Do you have questions about the Catholic Faith?

Have you been away from the Church... or do you just want to learn more about your faith? Were you raised in another faith or maybe not raised in any faith, but feel called to something deeper?

Father, Son and Holy Spirit

Saint John the Apostle called himself “the disciple Jesus loved.” Jesus loved everyone, but John wanted to share how deeply he felt Jesus’ love in his own life. Jesus’ love changed him forever.

John wrote many times about love because he knew something very important: God is love. Love is not just something God does. Love is who God is.

That is what we celebrate on Trinity Sunday. God the Father loved the world so much that He sent His Son, Jesus, to save us. Through the Holy Spirit, God invites us into His love and friendship forever.

The Trinity is a beautiful mystery: one God, three Persons -Father, Son, and Holy Spirit - living in perfect love that never ends..

Pillars of Faith

by Fr. Stephen Baumann

St. Mary Magdalene De Pazzi

A short introductory paragraph in the Liturgy of the Hours for this feast of St. Mary Magdalene de Pazzi (1568-1607) tells us "She led a solitary life of prayer and self-denial, prayed fervently for Church reform and directed her fellow sisters on the road to perfection."

She was a member of a cloistered Carmelite community in Florence, Italy. The Church of her time struggled with the problems of the Reformation and the reforms mandated by the Council of Trent. She became ill as a novice, and was very close to death when she was granted mystical experiences. Afterwards, she was able to communicate insights into divine truths through her writings. Through letters to the Pope and others in the Church, she encouraged efforts for the reform of the Church.

She was very devout in her cloistered life of prayer, and throughout her life she suffered much, physically and spiritually. Her spiritual sufferings were due to temptation and spiritual dryness, but she persevered, with strong faith and charity.

An excerpt from her writings which we read in the Office of Readings today, shows her marvelous understanding of how God reveals Himself to us:

"You do not, O Holy Spirit, stand still in the unmoved Father or in the Word and in yourself and in all blessed spirits and creatures. You are the friend of the created because of the blood shed by the only-begotten Word, who in the greatness of his love made himself the friend of the created. You find rest in creatures who are prepared to meet you, so that in the transmission of your gifts they take on, through purity, their own particular likeness to you. You find rest in those creatures who absorb the effects of the Blood of the Word, and make themselves a worthy dwelling place for you."

Today we pray that we may follow the example of charity and purity of St. Mary Magdalene de Pazzi, who was filled with Heavenly gifts and the fire of God's love. (Opening Prayer or Collect of the Mass).

Seasons of Hope

Bringing Comfort
through Catholic Grief Support

Next Session: Wednesday, June 10th
This session will be led by Deacon Joe Gassman

"Seasons of Hope" is a unique grief support program for Catholics that focuses on the spiritual side of grieving the death of a loved one. The program is led by Dr. Curran and will meet once a month from 6-7:30 pm in the St. Gabriel Life Center. The program invites those who mourn to accompany one another and to meet Christ through scripture, prayer, reflection, and simple activities that offer comfort and help to foster healing and spiritual growth.

Food Pantry Update - Thank You, Annunciation!

Because of your generosity, prayers, donations, and volunteer support, our Food Pantry has been able to serve children and families in a remarkable way this school year.

Together, we delivered 4,182 backpacks of food to five elementary schools — more than 83,000 pounds of food for children in need. We also helped stock food pantries at Lake Brantley High School, Teague Middle School, and Longwood Congregational Church.

At Thanksgiving and Christmas, your support helped provide 700 holiday meal bags, including gift cards, to families through seven schools, the Sheriff's Wrap Around Division, St. Vincent de Paul, Longwood Congregational, and walk-in needs — totaling another 14,000 pounds of food.

We are grateful for our volunteers, Young Adults, Annunciation Academy students, and our local Publix partner, all of whom have helped make this ministry possible.

Thank you for helping us feed our neighbors and remind families that they are not forgotten.
