

Annunciation hearts are burning
to know, love and serve God
by loving and serving others.

Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin?
Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge.
So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

Matthew 10:29,31

Father's Day Blessing

God our Father,
In your wisdom and love you have created us and called us your own. Bless our fathers, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers.

Let the example of their faith and love shine forth.

In moments of joy, rejoice with them. In times of struggle, give them your courage and perseverance. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor and appreciate them always with a spirit of profound respect. May the example and prayer of St. Joseph inspire them to live their vocation with courage.

Grant this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

We have consecrated our diocese to the Sacred Heart of Jesus! May we gaze upon the Sacred Heart and receive Christ's love!

St. James Catholic Cathedral was overflowing with the faithful members of the Diocese of Orlando, hearts burning to celebrate the consecration of the diocese to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Reflection on the Gospel

When you pray, does God “whisper” to you? Do you sense His presence? Has He convicted your heart about Himself and all that He has revealed? Most likely He has,
in His own silent way.

God rarely speaks to us through visions or an audible voice. Though He has done so in the lives of some saints, such mystical experiences are not necessarily better for our salvation and holiness than the ordinary way He usually speaks.

For most people, God comes in silent prayer, interior intuitions, and spiritual consolations. We might hear a sermon and suddenly feel convicted, inspired, or filled with hope. God's ordinary activity in our souls must be listened to and answered.

Listening to the Voice of God means discerning the eternal Truth He communicates to us and responding faithfully. This is our conscience at work: “Conscience is the most secret core and sanctuary of a man. There he is alone with God, Whose voice echoes in his depths” (Gaudium et Spes #16).

In today's Gospel, when Jesus says, “What I say to you in the darkness...” and “what you hear whispered...” He points to this secret sanctuary of conscience. But His word is not meant to remain hidden. It must be spoken “in the light” and proclaimed “on the housetops.” Our faith is personal and intimate, but it must also be shared through our words and actions.

Sharing our faith can be difficult. We may fear offending someone who is not living the Gospel. Jesus addresses this fear directly: “Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul.” Fear must never keep us from witnessing to the truth.

When we live our faith openly, some will receive it with joy, while others will not.
When our words are rejected, we may second-guess ourselves and become anxious. But this fear must be overcome by love, holy sorrow, and fidelity to Christ's command.

A well-formed conscience, guided by the Gospel, gives us courage to speak with clarity and charity. If we remain open to God's voice and proclaim what He whispers in our hearts, we become true witnesses to Christ, bringing His light into a world in desperate need of Him.

God Whispers

God loves you very much.

When you pray, God may not speak in a loud voice. He often speaks quietly in your heart.

He may help you know what is good. He may help you say sorry. He may help you be kind.

This quiet voice is a gift from God.

When you hear God in your heart, listen to Him. Then try to do what is right.

God is always near you. He loves to help you follow Him.

A PRAYER FOR LIFE

to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

O Jesus, you came that we might have life—and have it in abundance. Together with the Father and the Holy Spirit, you form us in our mothers' wombs and call us to love you for all eternity.

As your most precious gift of human life is attacked, draw us ever closer to your Real Presence in the Eucharist. Dispel the darkness of the culture of death, for you are the light that shines in the darkness, and the darkness cannot overcome it.

By the power of your Eucharistic Presence, help us to defend the life of every human person at every stage. Transform our hearts to protect and cherish all whose lives are most vulnerable.

For you are God, forever and ever.

— AMEN.

Pillars of Faith

by Fr. Stephen Baumann

St. Aloysius Gonzaga, Religious

"Remarkable innocence with a spirit of penance." So states the Collect of his Mass about his life. From his early years as a young teenager, he was pious and interested in the revival of a true religious faith and practice.

His opportunities for a military or political career were many. But Aloysius chose religious life, and at age 18 he entered the Society of Jesus. The practice, then as now, was to combine the years of study with some practical ministry and experience. He was interested in instructing young people, and was called upon to care for the sick during the time of plague in Rome. Already frail, he became more ill, and died at the age of 23. Canonized in 1726, he was declared protector of young students and later patron of Catholic youth.

The overly pious images and statues of St. Aloysius do not do him justice, because they do not convey the strength of character of this young Jesuit. He was a mature, intelligent and remarkably decisive young man, who was strong in his religious vocation.

We invoke his intercession and pray to imitate his prayerful faith and spirit of self-discipline and penance. He is a model not only for youth, but for all who sincerely strive to live in the positive spirit of the Gospel. Like him, we hope that we "shall climb the mountain of the Lord and stand in his holy place. The innocent man, the pure of heart." (Entrance Antiphon).

This Week on Formed

Week of June 21, 2026

Saint Thomas More: The Age of the Author

This engaging series delves into the lives of the saints who led the Catholic Counter-Reformation. In this episode, learn about St. Thomas More, a patient witness to the faith who endured a heroic martyrdom at the hands of Henry VIII.

The Nativity of John the Baptist

On the Nativity of John the Baptist, join Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp as they sit down and discuss a piece of Sacred Art depicting this holy event.

St. Cyril of Alexandria | Catholic Saints

During the Nestorian Controversy of the fifth century, heroic saints like Cyril of Alexandria defended the truth of Christ's divinity. In this episode, Dr. Carl Vennerstrom and Mary McGeehan discuss the Nestorian heresy and how St. Cyril's humble, courageous spirit aided the Church during a time of discord.
