

Annunciation hearts are burning to know, love and serve God
by loving and serving others.

Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life
for my sake will find it.

Matthew 10:39

Our Parish Office and Bookstore will be closed on Friday, July 3rd through Sunday, July 5th. Eucharistic Adoration will also be closed. We will have our regular 7am and 12:15pm Masses.

On the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, June 12, the Diocese of Orlando was consecrated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The community of St. James Cathedral and parish communities throughout the Diocese of Orlando also participated in a prayer of consecration to grow in love, trust, prayer and devotion to God.

Reflection on the Gospel

When a scribe approached Jesus and asked Him which of the commandments was the greatest, He replied: “‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.’ The second is this: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no other commandment greater than these” (Mark 12:30–31).

Today’s Gospel offers a similar teaching: We must love God above all else—even more than father, mother, son, or daughter. By contrasting love for God with love for family, Jesus is not diminishing familial affection; rather, He is revealing that the only way to truly love others is by loving God first.

Saint Thomas Aquinas teaches: “God must be loved above all things and before all others out of charity, for He is loved as the source of happiness, whereas our neighbor is loved as one who shares in that happiness along with us” (Summa Theologiae II-II, Q.26, A.2). In other words, God must be loved first because He is the ultimate cause and source of beatitude—the only true happiness. Though we are called to love our families and our neighbors, Christian charity dictates that we love them in relation to God—as fellow recipients of divine happiness.

One reason this Gospel is challenging is that our natural affections, though good, must be transformed by divine charity. It is natural to love our parents and children—God designed us with these affections. Even animals instinctively care for their offspring. But Jesus calls us to something higher: a love that is perfected by divine charity, transcending mere emotional attachment or duty. His teaching does not negate natural love; rather, it purifies, elevates, and directs it toward the highest good—God Himself.

When we love God first, all our relationships are purified. Instead of loving others with human affection alone, we love them with the very love of God, seeking their ultimate good: eternal life in Him. This purified love does not exclude human affection; rather, it elevates and directs it, ensuring that our love is not merely sentimental but truly transformative through divine charity.

Sharing photos from Steubenville
Orlando last weekend!

Hello Annunciation family! I wanted to share my experience of Steubenville's Teen Conference. If you don't know me, I am a regular church member. I participate in church weekly through altar serving and our teen youth group, as well as volunteering. I have always loved going to church and spending time praying to God. Steubenville helped develop my faith by opening my eyes even wider to God. I had such an amazing time worshipping Christ. I have never felt such a calling from God to grow closer to Him. Anytime I had the chance, I would spend time in adoration or confessing my sins through reconciliation. Even though the conference was only three days, it has already made a lasting impact on my life. If any teen has an opportunity to go to Steubenville or a retreat, take it. God will open their eyes at these events. Take any chance you have to grow closer with Him, you won't regret it. God bless!

Faith Formation for Children and Youth

Registration for 2026-27 Faith Formation is open!

Registration for Traditional & Family Catechesis (1st – 8th grades) and Confirmation Prep (9th grade). Sessions begin in August. For more information about all the programs that are offered visit our website:

Traditional Catechesis

Annunciation Traditional Catechesis is offered for grades 1-5 each Wednesday at 4:15pm or grades 1-8 at 6:15pm. Each session is 1 hour and 15 minutes. In-person sessions begin August 26th.

Family Catechesis

Annunciation Family Catechesis uses the Finding God curriculum to combine parish-based group meetings (parent/guardian & child) and grade-specific instruction by trained catechists with at-home sessions guided by parents. The first in-person session is September 14th.

Confirmation

Confirmation is celebrated in 9th grade or later. To be prepared for Confirmation in 9th grade, all 8th grade students should be enrolled in a Catholic Faith Formation program or attend a Catholic school. We look forward to celebrating this beautiful Sacrament with your family!

For more information, visit www.annunciationorlando.org/family

The Kids Bulletin

Filled With Love

Jesus tells us to love God most of all.

We love our moms, dads, brothers, sisters, and friends. That is very good.

But Jesus says we must love God first. When we love God first, He helps us love other people better.

God fills our hearts with His love.

Then we can be kind. We can help. We can forgive. We can care for others.

When we stay close to God, His love shines through us.

Hallow

We are continuing our partnership with Hallow.

Through prayer and meditation rooted in the Catholic faith, Hallow helps people grow closer to God and find peace, everyday. Users can pray alongside Fr. Mike, Sr. Miriam, Mark Wahlberg, Jonathan Roumie, + many more. The app also offers mental health and sleep content, audiobooks, and sacred music.

Visit: www.annunciationorlando.org/hallow to learn more and to sign-up for free.

Do you have questions about the Catholic Faith?

Have you been away from the Church... or do you just want to learn more about your faith? Were you raised in another faith or maybe not raised in any faith, but feel called to something deeper?

Ministry Spotlight: Habitat for Humanity

For 25+ years, our parish has partnered with Habitat for Humanity, an organization that brings people together to help families build strength, stability, and a brighter future through safe and affordable housing. This year, we were honored to be Habitat's Construction Volunteer Group of the Year.

Denny Vandendriessche has been guiding the ministry at our Parish for the last 10 years and will be stepping down to be replaced by Michele Brindle, a long time parish volunteer. As Denny steps away from this leadership role, we are grateful not only for the work he has done, but for the spirit with which he has served. Through Habitat, Denny has had the privilege of working alongside many parish volunteers, community partners, and families pursuing the dream of home ownership.

Reflecting on these years of service, Denny shared how meaningful it has been to be part of Habitat's mission. He spoke of the friendships, partnerships, and shared commitment that grew through the work. Most of all, he expressed the joy of serving with volunteers who were willing to give up their Saturdays to help another family take an important step forward.

That is one of the quiet blessings of ministry. We often begin by thinking about what we can give. But through service, God also gives something back to us: friendship, purpose, gratitude, and the joy of seeing hope take shape in the lives of others.

Habitat for Humanity is a hands-on way to put faith into action. Volunteers do not need to be professional builders. They simply need a willing heart, a little time, and a desire to serve. Whether helping on a build day, supporting the ministry behind the scenes, or encouraging others to get involved, each act of service helps make a difference.

We thank Denny for his faithful leadership and for showing how ordinary Saturdays can become opportunities for grace.

Pillars of Faith

by Fr. Stephen Baumann

The Birth of St. John the Baptist

"There was a man sent from God whose name was John. He came to testify to the light, to prepare a people fit for the Lord." (John 1:6-7; Luke 1:17 – Entrance Antiphon for Mass).

John the Baptist was a sign of expectation and promise, the last in the line of great prophets sent "to make ready a nation fit for Christ the Lord." (Collect of Mass). Fr. Carol StuhlmueLLer, C.P. calls him "the fierce prophet of truth and justice. So great was John the Baptist that the entire prophetic ministry of the Hebrew Scriptures was summed up in him."

John preached that self-purification was necessary before one could embrace the Lord. Preparation for the coming of the Messiah must include prayer and penance. His message was not original, but was in the long tradition of the prophets of the Covenant. Since Jesus, the Messiah, was already in the midst of the people, John was telling them to reflect and look into their lives so that they would be able to recognize him.

John's questions and message are as relevant today as they were to his contemporary audience. They were people with doubts, who were confused and wondering. They were people who were seeking, hoping, and believing, like ourselves. John asked them to believe more strongly, and to seek to improve their spiritual lives. He cried out with a force that had a ring of authority to it, like the prophets of old. "I am the voice of one crying in the desert, 'Make straight the way of the Lord.'" (John 1:23, & Isaiah 40:3).

John was telling the people of Israel, as well as us, to put our interior selves in order so that we might be ready for the coming of God. Today, we can understand his message as a plea to make ourselves more worthy of God in our lives.

John the Baptist challenges us to repentance and points the way to Christ. Conversion opens the way to appreciating and enhancing the Spirit of God in us; it opens the way to a deeper relationship with God.

All of us can intensify our spiritual efforts, and have untapped spiritual resources, maybe unanswered spiritual graces. Such openness and effort, such intense spiritual desire on our part, will lead to personal and spiritual growth.

This week, may we reflect upon John's message, turn from our sins and open our hearts anew. We can then join our voices to John's and announce to our world that Jesus is our salvation and our peace.

Pier Giorgio Frassati: If I Didn't Have Love

This is a classic Italian film that celebrates the life of Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati (1901–1925), re-released in honor of his 2025 canonization. Frassati was a joyful, athletic young man from a wealthy Italian family who gave his life in service to the poor, the sick, and the marginalized as a powerful witness of Christian charity. An avid mountain climber and leader in Catholic youth and social action, he died of polio at 24, leaving a lasting legacy of faith and joy.

Saint Peter

Watch the epic story of the spread of Christianity during the early years of the Church. This film follows the journey of St. Peter through his martyrdom on a cross.

Paul the Apostle | The Bible Collection

The church's greatest enemy became Christ's most prolific messenger. Beautifully shot in the Moroccan desert, Paul the Apostle is a sweeping saga of the man who brought the Gospel to the Western world.
