Special Collection for Venezuela

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Grace and Peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. We are called to assist our brothers and sisters in Venezuela who are faced with the loss of their loved ones, their worldly possessions and economic livelihood due to the recent 7.2 and 7.5-magnitude twin earthquakes. The death toll has risen to over 1,400 people and there are still ongoing efforts to rescue those that are trapped in the rubble. We offer our prayers to all the families affected by these disasters and pray for the repose of the souls whose lives were taken.

In solidarity with our brothers and sisters, I ask you to participate in Disaster Relief 2026, a voluntary special collection for the humanitarian, long-term recovery, and Church needs arising from these calamities. The funds collected in this special appeal will be used to support the efforts of the official relief agencies of the U.S. Catholic Church, Catholic Charities USA and/or Catholic Relief Services, as they and their local agencies respond to immediate emergency needs for such necessities as water, food, shelter, and medical care, and aid in long-term rebuilding and recovery efforts; and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops for pastoral and reconstruction needs of the Church.

We pray our love of God and neighbor are worthy of His mandate.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John Noonan
Bishop of Orlando

Reflection on the Gospel

In today's Gospel, Jesus delivers the Parable of the Sower from a boat, speaking to the large crowd gathered along the shore. Using the natural acoustics of the water, His voice carries to those who came eagerly to hear Him. Their desire invites us to examine ourselves: Am I among that crowd, listening attentively as God speaks to me today? Do I seek, hear, and respond to His Word?

A parable both reveals and conceals. It reveals divine truth to the humble and receptive, while concealing it from those whose hearts are closed. The mysteries of the Kingdom are not quickly mastered. They must enter the soul, be pondered, nourished, and allowed to transform us.

The Sower is Christ. The seed is the Word of God. The soil is the human heart, in its varying degrees of readiness. Some hearts are like rich, prepared soil. When the Word enters, it takes root, grows, and bears good fruit.

Other hearts are less receptive. Like the path, some are hardened and unwilling to receive divine truth. The Word is heard, but not welcomed, and the enemy snatches it away before it can take root.

Rocky ground represents those who receive the Word with joy but lack perseverance. They begin with fervor, but when trials come, they fall away. Without deep roots in prayer and conversion, they cannot endure the heat of testing.

The thorny heart is divided. It may hear and even cherish the Gospel, but anxieties, riches, ambition, pleasures, and fear choke the Word and prevent it from growing.

The good news is that God, the Divine Sower, is not passive. He sows the seed Himself—personally, directly, and abundantly. He is not a distant monarch waiting for us to find Him. God always takes the initiative. He goes forth, casting His Word upon us even before we ask.

This seed comes to us as truth and grace. As truth, God's Word enlightens the mind to know His mysteries. As grace, it strengthens the will to live those truths in faith and charity.

The Divine Sower sows lavishly—on the path, among rocks, amid thorns, and upon rich soil. This is not carelessness, but mercy. God desires all to be saved. Even where the heart seems hardened, shallow, or choked, He continues to sow. He never ceases to speak, reach out, and invite—until the final moment, when the time for sowing is ended.

The Kids Bulletin Planting Seeds

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells a story. He sits in a boat while many people stand by the water. They want to hear Him speak.

Jesus tells them about a farmer who goes out to plant seeds. Jesus is like the farmer. The seed is God's Word. The ground is our heart.

Some seed falls on a hard path. It cannot grow. This is like a heart that does not listen to God.

Some seed falls on rocky ground. It grows fast, but it does not have deep roots. When the sun gets hot, it dies. This is like a heart that loves God at first but gives up when life is hard.

Some seed falls among thorns. The thorns grow and choke the plant. This is like a heart that is too busy or too worried to love God well.

Some seed falls on good soil. It grows strong and gives good fruit. This is like a heart that listens to God, loves Him, and follows Him.

God keeps planting His Word in us. He does not stop loving us. He speaks to every heart. He wants our hearts to be good soil.

Today we can ask Jesus, "Help my heart be ready for Your Word."

Pillars of Faith

by Fr. Stephen Baumann

St. Anthony Maria Zaccaria, Priest

Austere asceticism (strict and sometimes extreme avoidance of all pleasures) is one way to convince the Church that there is a need for reformation and renewal of spirit. St. Anthony Maria Zaccaria (1502-1539) was a humble priest, very demanding of himself in matters ascetical. He was zealous in preaching about the need for reform in the life of the Church, and moral renewal among both clergy and laity in the years following the Protestant Reformation.

He was the founder of two religious communities, one for men and one for women. He endeavored to instill in his followers the enthusiasm of St. Paul the Apostle. To them he wrote: "We have chosen such a great apostle as our guide...We should try to put his teachings and example into practice in our lives. Such a leader should not be served by faint-hearted troops."

St. Anthony wrote to his religious brothers: "In his mercy, God has chosen us, unworthy as we are, out of the world, to serve him and thus to advance in goodness and to bear the greatest possible fruit of love in patience. We should take encouragement not only from the hope of sharing in the glory of God's children, but also from the hardships we daily undergo.

Consider your calling, dearest brothers; if we wish to think carefully about it we shall see readily enough that its basis demands that we who have set out to follow, admittedly from afar, the footsteps of the holy apostles and the other soldiers of Christ, should not be unwilling to share in their sufferings as well. We should keep running steadily in the race we have started, not losing sight of Jesus, who leads us in our faith and brings it to perfection. And so since we have chosen such a great Apostle as our guide and father, and claim to follow him, we should try to put his teaching and example into practice in our lives. Such a leader should not be served by faint hearted troops nor should such a parent find his sons unworthy of him." (2nd Reading, Liturgy of the Hours).

In the Collect of Mass on this day we pray that like St. Anthony Maria Zaccaria, we will be able to grasp the spirit of St. Paul, the sublime wisdom of Jesus Christ that motivated our saint. We can, perhaps resolve to enthusiastically live our Christian vocation and be joyful witnesses to Jesus.
