

Annunciation hearts are burning to know, love and serve God by loving and serving others.

“The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.”

Matthew 13:44

Reflection on the Gospel

In the parables in the Gospel we read about a person who unexpectedly discovers a treasure buried in a field.

In the second parable, the merchant is actively searching for a valuable pearl. He knows what he seeks and finally discovers one of exceptional worth - one that eclipses all others. In both cases, however, the response is the same: the man and the merchant each go and sell all they possess to obtain the treasure they have found.

These parables pose two fundamental questions for each of us: Have I discovered the priceless treasure of the Kingdom of Heaven? If I have, am I willing to let go of everything else to attain it?

Like the man who stumbles upon the buried treasure, many people encounter God's grace in surprising ways—through a moment of prayer, a profound experience at Mass, an act of charity, or even during suffering. Maybe those people were not actively seeking divine treasure, yet in a moment of providence, the veil is lifted, and the beauty of God's Kingdom is revealed. Once they discover the treasure, their souls realize that nothing else compares. From that point on, they are moved to reorient their entire lives to possess that treasure fully.

The path of the merchant, by contrast, is that of the soul who longs for truth, beauty, and goodness, diligently seeking them out. The one who searches might spend years studying, praying, yearning, and pursuing what is of eternal value. And then—finally—the “pearl” is found. Christ is discovered. The Gospel becomes clear. The longing is fulfilled. Again, everything else is willingly surrendered for the sake of that one Pearl of great price—Jesus Christ.

In both parables, the decision to sell all to gain the treasure is an easy choice. The discovery is so great that everything else the person possesses pales in comparison. But how many people have truly made such a discovery?

Though we may have heard about the glory of God's Kingdom, unless we truly discover it, we will not see the value of attaining it at any cost. We will only be willing to sell all we have—to detach from every hindrance to grace, every sin, obsession, and distraction—if we make the initial discovery of the priceless nature of God's Kingdom already present on earth and the fullness of His Kingdom that awaits us in Heaven.

What Is Discipleship?

A disciple is someone who accepts Jesus' invitation: "Follow me." Discipleship is more than simply knowing about Jesus - it means developing a relationship with Him, learning from Him, and allowing His teachings to shape how we live. Our journey as disciples begins in Baptism, when we become members of Christ and receive the invitation to share in His life, His joy, His mission, and even His sufferings (CCC 787). Through prayer, Scripture, the Sacraments, service to others, and daily conversion, we learn to become more like Christ. A disciple does not keep the faith private but bears witness to it and shares it with others (CCC 1816). Discipleship is therefore not simply something we do on Sundays - it is a lifelong decision to follow Jesus in every part of our lives.

The Kids Bulletin

Buried Treasure

Jesus tells us about a man who found treasure in a field. He was not looking for it. He found it by surprise.

The treasure was worth more than everything he owned. The man was very happy. He sold all he had so he could buy the field and keep the treasure.

God's Kingdom is like that treasure. We may find God in prayer, at Mass, or when someone shows us love. We may feel God close to us when we help someone or when we are sad.

When we know how much God loves us, we see that He is our greatest treasure. Nothing is better than being close to God.

Jesus wants us to choose Him each day. We can let go of sin and things that pull us away from Him. We can pray, love others, and follow His words.

God's love is a treasure that lasts forever.

Pillars of Faith

by Fr. Stephen Baumann

St. Lawrence of Brindisi, Priest & Doctor

After reading about St. Lawrence of Brindisi (1559-1619) in various dictionaries of saints and commentaries in various sources, one has to be impressed by the talent and energy of this saint. Well educated in philosophy and theology at the University of Padua, one of the great medieval schools, he was ordained a priest at age 23. His brilliant use of sacred scripture in preaching was soon recognized. He was an accomplished linguist, fluent in the biblical languages as well as the major languages of continental Europe.

Recognized in addition to his theological brilliance was his "human compassion and administrative skills," which served him well as Minister General of his Order, and on the many peace-keeping missions he undertook for the pope and several monarchs of his day. "Lawrence had a balance in his life that was able to blend self-discipline with a keen appreciation for the needs of those whom he was called to serve." This was true of his ministry in the Church, in his religious order, and as arbiter in many political disputes and threatening situations.

His first love and his greatest talent was his preaching in which he used the Scriptures with great skill. In one of his sermons he said:

"For the word of God is a light to the mind and a fire to the will. It enables man to know God and to love him. And for the interior man who lives by the Spirit of God through grace, it is bread and water...For the soul it is a spiritual treasure of merits yielding an abundance of gold and precious stones. Against the hardness of heart that persists in wrongdoing, it acts as a hammer. Against the world, the flesh and the devil it serves as a sword that destroys all sin." (2nd Reading, Liturgy of the Hours).

We pray today through the intercession of St. Lawrence of Brindisi, Doctor (teacher) of the Church, "to know what we should do and have the courage to do it." (Collect for Mass).
