

Annunciation hearts are burning to know, love and serve God by loving and serving others.

Taking the five loaves and the two fish,
and looking up to heaven,
he said the blessing, broke the loaves,
and gave them to the disciples,
who in turn gave them to the crowds.

Matthew 14:19

Reflection on the Gospel

In the Gospels of Matthew and Mark, there are two distinct miraculous feedings of large crowds. Today's Gospel depicts the first one, given primarily to Jewish people near the Sea of Galilee. Five thousand men (not counting women and children) were fed from five loaves and two fish, resulting in twelve baskets left over. This feeding of the five thousand is notably the only miracle of Jesus recorded in all four Gospels, underscoring its significance. Matthew and Mark also recount a second miraculous feeding—this time of four thousand people—in the largely pagan region of the Decapolis, using seven loaves and a few fish, with seven baskets left over.

Upon disembarking a boat, Jesus finds that a large crowd has followed Him on foot, anticipating His arrival, hungry for His teachings and miracles. Here we encounter a second revelation of Jesus' divinity shining through His humanity. Seeing the crowd and perceiving their brokenness, sinfulness, and suffering, "his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick." The Greek word translated here as "pity" indicates a deeply felt, visceral compassion. This compassion, divine in origin, flows perfectly through Jesus' sacred humanity. His compassionate gaze vividly reveals God's merciful love: Jesus does not merely sympathize; He acts decisively, healing the sick and alleviating their suffering. His divine love compels Him to act for the good of His people.

The miracle itself recalls God's providential care for the Israelites during their forty years in the desert, when manna appeared each morning, providing sufficient food for each day. That miracle, coupled with today's Gospel, teaches us a consistent truth: God always provides for us when we turn to Him, seeking Him earnestly as the crowd did.

The multiplication of the loaves and fish also foreshadows the Eucharist, likely the reason it is recorded in all four Gospels. In the Eucharist, God provides abundantly for our spiritual nourishment. When received with faith and trust in God's providence, Jesus' Body and Blood nourishes every virtue within us, empowering us to flourish spiritually. The Eucharist prepares us for eternal life, where we anticipate sharing in the eternal Wedding Banquet of Heaven - a perfect, everlasting celebration free from all sin, sickness, and suffering.

Annunciation Catholic Academy is seeking part-time Teaching Assistants for the upcoming school year. Teaching Assistants work in partnership with classroom teachers to provide a high-quality, faith-filled educational experience for all students. One available position will support the school's music program. The ability to play the piano and accompany school Masses is preferred. If you are interested in joining our ministry of Catholic education, please contact Claudette Banciella, Assistant Principal, at banciellac@annunciationacademy.org.

Catechesis Corner

What Is Stewardship?

Stewardship flows from discipleship. A Christian steward recognizes that everything we have - our life, faith, abilities, possessions, time, and the world around us - is a gift from God. We are not merely owners of these gifts; we are caretakers who are called to use them wisely, gratefully, and generously for God's glory and the good of others. Stewardship is therefore about much more than giving money. It means offering our time in prayer and service, sharing our talents, caring responsibly for creation, and helping those in need. When we practice stewardship, we respond to God's generosity by returning His gifts with love.

See CCC 2402, 2404; USCCB, Stewardship: A Disciple's Response.

The Kids Bulletin

Miracle of Love

A large crowd came to see Jesus. The people wanted to hear Him teach. They also brought sick people to Him.

Jesus looked at the crowd with love. He cared about them. He healed the sick and helped those who were hurting. Soon, the people were hungry. There were thousands of people, but they had only five loaves of bread and two fish.

Jesus took the bread and fish. He thanked God and gave the food to the people. Everyone ate until they were full. There were even twelve baskets of food left over!

This miracle shows us that Jesus cares for all our needs. He gives us what we need and always has enough to share.

This miracle also helps us think about the Eucharist. At Mass, Jesus gives Himself to us in Holy Communion. He feeds our souls and helps us grow closer to Him.

Jesus loves us. We can always trust Him to care for us.

Pillars of Faith

by Fr. Stephen Baumann

St. Mary Magdalen

St. Mary Magdalen was given the privilege of being the first to whom the risen Jesus appeared. The Collect of her Mass states that Jesus "first entrusted to Mary Magdalen the joyful news of his resurrection," and the gospels tell us that she was sent to the disciples to make this reality known. One who is sent, is an apostle, and the Church teaches that Mary Magdalen became "the apostle to the apostles."

Who is this Mary of Magdala? Apparently not the woman, the unknown sinner who anointed the feet of Jesus (Cf. Luke 7:36): nor the sister of Martha, for she had been wrongfully identified with both.

From the Gospels we do conclude that she was the one from whom Jesus had cast out seven demons (Cf. Mk. 16:9 & Lk. 8:2); that she is one of the women who ministered to the needs of Jesus (Lk.8:2), was a witness of the crucifixion (Mt. 27:56); Mk. 15:40; Jn. 19:25), was present at his burial (Mt. 27:61; Mk. 15:47), and was at the empty tomb (Cf. Mt. 28:1-10; was the first to whom the risen Jesus appeared. (Cf. Jn. 20:11-18).

Among the women who followed Jesus during his public ministry, Mary Magdalen is always mentioned first, and it would seem that she was the leader of this group of women who used their personal means to provide for Jesus and his apostles. From the attention that she is given by the evangelists, we are certain that she was a devoted follower, and because she received the privilege of being the first to experience the Resurrection, we understand that she was obviously greatly loved by Jesus.

We pray that we may "proclaim Christ as our living Lord and one day see Him in glory," (Collect of Mass), and that we might be filled "with the same faithful love that kept Mary Magdalen close to Christ." (Prayer after Communion).

Locally, our mother parish, St. Mary Magdalen, was founded on this feast day in 1959.
