Our Mission Co-op this year was presented by Fr. Ebin Mathew. He is a priest of the Order of Carmelites. Thank you for supporting their mission, raising $15,954! Fr. Ebin wrote us this past week with an update. Here is an excerpt:

I wanted to share a quick update from my side. Since my return, I have been completely busy with formation work, and I am also serving as a manager at a College here. So life has been quite packed. At the same time, our Finance Commission members and I have been engaging in some charitable works:

1. Support for students: After my arrival and after receiving the Mission Appeal money, it was the start of the new academic year. We identified some very poor students and helped them by buying study materials and also provided financial assistance.
 2. Care for the sick: Our Novitiate community found some sick people who need to go through kidney dialysis, cancer treatment, and other serious illnesses. We were able to help them.
 3. Help for Joel: We also helped a 7th grade boy named Joel who suffers from Type 1 Diabetes. It is a chronic autoimmune condition where the body's immune system attacks and destroys insulin-producing cells in the pancreas. He needed ongoing support.
 4. Local distribution: We have also handed some funds to each community prior to identify people in and around their communities who are most in need, so they can distribute it to deserving people.
- I am enclosing a few pictures with this email.
With love and prayers, Fr. Ebin Mathew O. Carm

Reflection on the Gospel

The symbolism associated with Caesarea Philippi is central to today's Gospel. Located north of Jesus' home base in Capernaum, it was a predominantly pagan city known for its shrines to false gods.

Additionally, the city was the site of a temple dedicated to the late emperor, Caesar Augustus, who was worshiped as a god throughout the Roman Empire. It was into this spiritually dark pagan setting that Jesus led His disciples—on what may have been a two-day journey—for what culminated in a single, monumental question.

Jesus took the Twelve away from the comfort of their familiar fishing village and Jewish neighbors for a reason. He wanted them to answer His question not in the midst of the familiar and safe, but in a place marked by spiritual confusion and idolatry. Why? So that faith could be professed even there, and divine grace could confront the darkness that permeated the region.

At first, He asked who the people said He was. They answered, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." But then He posed the question that reached the heart of His mission: "But who do you say that I am?" This was a moment of divine testing—one which Simon passed with profound faith: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus' extraordinary and consequential response has enduring significance to this day. He declared:

"Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven" (Matthew 16:17-19).

With these sacred words, Jesus founded His Church upon Peter, making him the first pope. In biblical tradition, a change of name signifies a new mission and identity. Simon, son of Jonah, was now to be called Peter—Petros in Greek and Cephas in Aramaic—meaning "rock." Peter became the solid foundation upon which Christ's Church would be built. No pagan power, false god, or earthly ruler would ever overcome what Christ established with divine authority.

Special Collection this weekend

We are called to assist our brothers and sisters in the cities of Cali, Perieira, Colombia who are faced with the destruction of more than 10,500 homes in the western part of the country due to the recent 7.4-magnitude earthquakes. More than 3,900 people have been injured and at least 281 confirmed dead with hundreds still reported missing. The funds collected in this special appeal will be used to support the efforts of the official relief agencies of the U.S. Catholic Church, Catholic Charities USA and/or Catholic Relief Services, as they and their local agencies respond to immediate emergency needs for such necessities as water, food, shelter, and medical care, and aid in long-term rebuilding and recovery efforts. Please donate online through our giving portal or use the blue collection envelopes and write Disaster Relief 2026 in the memo. Thank you!

What Is Discernment?

We often hear Catholics speak about discernment, but what does it really mean? Discernment is the prayerful process of seeking to recognize what God is asking of us and becoming willing to follow where He leads. It is more than simply deciding what we want and asking God to bless it. True discernment begins with an open heart that asks, "Lord, what do You want?" We listen through prayer, Sacred Scripture, the teachings of the Church, wise counsel, the circumstances of our lives, and the movements of our hearts. Discernment is not only for major decisions or religious vocations. We can seek God's will in our relationships, work, family life, use of our gifts, and the choices we make every day. As St. Paul writes, we are called to "discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect."

Scripture: Romans 12:2; Luke 22:42

Catechism: CCC 2826

The Kids Bulletin

Who am I?

Jesus asked His friends, "Who do you say that I am?" Peter knew the answer. He said that Jesus is the Son of God.

Jesus was happy with Peter's answer. He gave Peter a special job. Jesus said Peter would be like a strong rock, and He would build His Church on that rock. Peter became a leader of the Church and helped others follow Jesus.

Jesus asks us the same question: "Who do you say that I am?" We learn who Jesus is when we pray, listen to His Word, and spend time with Him.

Today, remember that Jesus is the Son of God. He gave us His Church to help us know Him, love Him, and follow Him.

Our ACA Buddy Families welcomed our new families with a special dinner last Saturday.

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

If you've been thinking about becoming Catholic, or learning more about the Catholic faith, OCIA - the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults - is a welcoming place to begin. Reaching out is simply the first step - a chance to ask questions, learn more, and see where God may be leading you. Our next OCIA journey begins Saturday, September 12th at 9am in the Nazareth Center. If God is stirring something in your heart, we encourage you to speak with a priest or deacon or contact Vicki Ridgeway, our Director of Faith Formation, at 407-869-9472 or vridgeway@annunciationorlando.org to learn more.

Confirmation

Confirmation is celebrated in 9th grade or later. To be prepared for Confirmation in 9th grade, all 8th grade students should be enrolled in a Catholic Faith Formation program or attend a Catholic school. We look forward to celebrating this beautiful Sacrament with your family!

Confirmation Preparation

Requirement: Students planning to receive Confirmation in 9th grade must either attend a Catholic school or be enrolled in a parish Faith Formation program during 8th grade. Students should not register for Confirmation while in 8th grade; Confirmation enrollment takes place in 9th grade. To register visit www.annunciationorlando.org/family

Sunday School

Sunday School will be offered to active registered parish members during the 10am Mass in the Preschool for ages 2, 3, and 4. Your child(ren) must be the age you wish to register them by September 1, 2026 to be eligible for Sunday School. There is limited space so please only register your child if you plan to attend weekly. The first in-person session will be September 13th. To register visit www.annunciationorlando.org/family

Are you an adult who has not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation?

For most of us, the Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated when we were either in junior high or in high school. For those adults in the OCIA, their Confirmation is celebrated when they are baptized at the Easter Vigil. But, for a variety of reasons, many adult Catholics have not yet been confirmed. You do not have to pre-register.

THIS INVITATION IS FOR YOU!

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program. The next Adult Confirmation session will begin on Thursday, August 27 at 6:30pm in the Nazareth Center for 7 consecutive weeks. Confirmation takes place on October 11 at 5pm at St. James Cathedral.

TO FIND OUT MORE: Contact Vicki Ridgeway at vridgeway@annunciationorlando.org.

Pillars of Faith

by Fr. Stephen Baumann

St. Dominic, Priest

"Dominic possessed such great integrity and was so strongly motivated by divine love, that without a doubt he proved to be a bearer of honor and grace." This was written of our saint for today. In the same collection of writings we read, "Wherever he went, he showed himself in word and deed to be a man of the Gospel...He seldom spoke unless it was of God, that is, in prayer, or about God; and in this manner he instructed his brothers."

Dominic (1170-1221), is popularly known as a great preacher and the founder of the Dominicans. His own efforts as preacher and those of his immediate followers were directed to combating the heresies of the Albigensians who denied the Incarnation of Jesus, repudiated the sacraments, and held other extremist ascetical (harsh penitential) views.

From childhood, Dominic showed signs of a vocation to the priesthood that was encouraged. He also gave evidence of a great concern for the poor. During a time of hunger, he sold his books, precious items at his time, to feed the poor. Like St. Francis of Assisi, he saw poverty in practice as a remedy for many of the ills that afflicted the Church in the late 12th and early 13th centuries.

Not only was Dominic a capable and inspiring preacher, but his life was exemplary. Holiness of life was a weapon against error as well as his preaching. Dominic's ideal was to combine prayer and asceticism (penitential practices) with study and the ministry of preaching. What one preached is learned in prayer and contemplation. "Bring to others what you contemplate," is the motto he gave to the Order he founded. His last years were spent organizing his followers into a community, the Order of Preachers.

The spirit and ideals of St. Dominic are alive today in the community he founded, both of men and women. Pope Gregory IX said of him: "I knew him as a steadfast follower of the apostolic way of life. There is no doubt that he is in heaven, sharing the glory of the apostles themselves."
