Beloved People of God:

Like you, when I first heard Pope Leo XIV is diagnosed with lung cancer, my reaction was disbelief. Our belief in God is always the fore of our heart and so I ask you to join me in prayer for Pope Leo XIV that God will sustain his spirit through the pilgrimage of this illness and His everlasting comfort will hold our Holy Father within the palm of God's hand. May our gathered prayer bring forth healing among all the people. May God's love overwhelm our soul that we serve as instruments of His holy peace.

Bishop Noonan

SISTER DIOCESE MISSION Collection Weekend

In 1983, Bishop Thomas Grady initiated a sister-diocese relationship with the Diocese of San Juan de la Maguana, the poorest of the dioceses in the Dominican Republic. What began by responding to medical needs has grown into a long-term ministry of faith, education, water, housing, and human development in the central mountains. Thank you for your support. Click on the QR code or use our blue, special collection envelopes.

Reflection on the Gospel

The Herodians were a political group who supported the rule of Herod Antipas and his dynasty. They favored collaboration with the Roman Empire and upheld the Herodian line as the legitimate rulers over Judea. For the sake of national stability, they promoted political compromise.

The Pharisees, on the other hand, were a religious sect devoted to the Law of Moses and the strict observance of Jewish customs, though often corrupted by legalism. They viewed Gentile rule as a threat to the sanctity of God's covenant and wielded great influence over the people due to their outward piety and perceived religious authority.

Given their stark political and theological differences, the alliance formed between the Pharisees and the Herodians in their plot against Jesus is both startling and revealing. Despite their longstanding enmity, they found common ground in their mutual hatred of Jesus. The Pharisees sought to undermine His credibility among the people, while the Herodians hoped to present Him as a threat to Roman authority. Together, they constructed a trap, hoping Jesus would either speak against the Law or against Caesar—either of which would serve their purposes.

As we look around us, we see many such counterfeit alliances formed not by shared conviction in what is good and true, but by convenience in opposing what threatens personal influence or power. Individuals and groups unite to silence voices that speak uncomfortable truths. This is frequently seen in politics and culture, but is also tragically found even within the Church. In every case, truth is twisted, motives are disguised, and God's pure and holy will becomes the object of attack. When such unholy alliances take root within the Church, they do grave damage to our common mission to proclaim the Gospel in truth.

True Christian unity is not grounded in shared ambitions or human agendas, but in the Person of Jesus Christ. It is expressed through charity, humility, and fidelity to God's will. It is not built on calculation or convenience but on the self-emptying love of Christ, who calls us to die to self and live for Him. Our only agenda must be that God be glorified and His children drawn into His glory and sanctification. As members of His Body, the Church, our unity must reflect the communion of the Most Holy Trinity, rooted in divine love, not in political expediency or pride.

All Souls Mass of Remembrance Monday, November 2nd at 7:00pm

All are invited to attend, to remember and to pray for the souls of the faithful departed. This is an opportunity to pray for the souls of all deceased family members and friends. The names of parishioners who have died during the past 12 months will be read and a family member or a friend will come forward to light a candle in their memory.

To have the name of a loved one who has died within the last year added to the names called out, please call or text Lynda Dennis at 321-277-1536 by October 31st. No call is necessary if the Funeral Mass was held at our Parish.

The Kids Bulletin

Change of Heart

In today's Gospel, Jesus talks about a coin. But what can we give to God? We can give Him our love!

Maybe there are times when you want to keep all your crayons to yourself. Then you see someone who has none. You decide to share. You have had a change of heart! With God's help, you chose to love.

Each day, we can tell God, "I love You!" Then we can show that love in what we do.

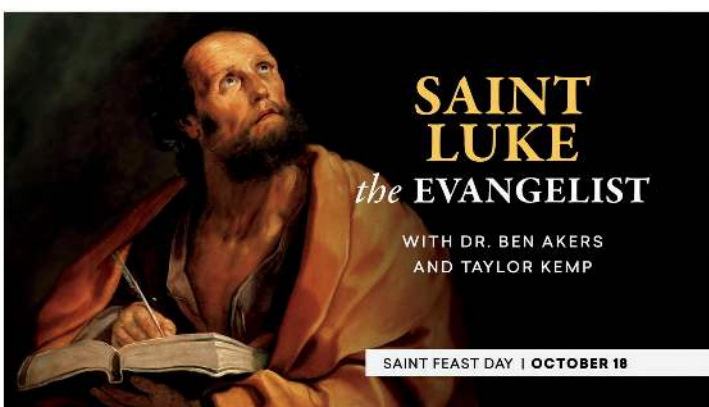

Jesus, help my heart grow in love for You and for others. Amen.

Gospel: Good News to Live and Share

We hear the word Gospel at every Mass. But what does it mean? Gospel means “good news”—the good news that God loves us and sent His Son, Jesus Christ, to save us. Through His life, death, and Resurrection, Jesus opens the way for us to share in God’s life forever.

The four Gospels - Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John - help us come to know Jesus through His words and actions. The Catechism calls the Gospels “the heart of all the Scriptures” because they are our principal source for His life and teaching (CCC 125).

At Mass, we stand for the Gospel out of reverence for Jesus, who speaks to us through His Word. We trace small crosses on our forehead, lips, and heart, expressing our desire for His Word to shape our thoughts, our speech, and our love.

The Gospel also invites a response. When we forgive someone, care for a neighbor, or speak about our faith with kindness, we put Jesus’ teaching into practice and help others discover His love.

This week: Read a short passage from one of the Gospels. Ask: “Jesus, what are You teaching me, and how can I live it today?”

Pillars of Faith

by Fr. Stephen Baumann

St. Denis, Bishop, and Companions - Martyrs

St. Denis is the apostle and patron of France. He was sent to Gaul (France) with six other bishops in the year 250 as missionaries. Tradition tells us that he preached in the area of Paris, and that he is honored as its first bishop. He was martyred near the city together with St. Rusticus, priest, and St. Elutherius, a deacon, about the year 258.

Martyrdom is a privileged and unique grace, and many who longed for it were not granted it. But many have found holiness in the daily struggle for fidelity to Christ and to his gospel.

In a commentary by St. Ambrose, we read: "As there are many kinds of persecution, so there are many kinds of martyrdom. Every day you are a witness to Christ."

St. Ambrose goes on to list the many temptations that the Christian faces in everyday life, temptations against purity, the temptation to avarice, the temptation to pride. He then asks:

"Who can give greater witness than one who acknowledges that the Lord Jesus has come in the flesh and keeps the commandments of the Gospel?"

And, "How many hidden martyrs there are, bearing witness to Christ each day and acknowledging Jesus as Lord! Be faithful and courageous when you are persecuted within, so that you may win approval when you are persecuted in public." (Commentary on Psalm 118).

St. Denis and his companion martyrs were strong and steadfast in their sufferings for Christ. Let their example strengthen us to bear the daily trials of life.
