Reflection on the Gospel

The Parable of the Ten Virgins draws on wedding customs familiar in first-century Israel. Understanding those customs helps reveal its deeper meaning.

Marriages were often arranged by the families. Once an agreement was reached and the bride price was paid, the couple entered into a binding betrothal. The groom then returned to his father's house to prepare a place for his bride, often adding a room to the family home. This preparation could take many months, while the bride remained at her father's house awaiting his return.

When the groom had finished and received his father's approval, he and his friends would come for the bride, often at night. Because the exact time was unknown, the bride and her attendants had to remain ready. A joyful cry announced the groom's arrival, and the attendants lit their lamps and accompanied the couple to the groom's house. Once they entered, the door was shut and the wedding feast began.

Jesus uses this setting to describe our relationship with Him. Through Baptism, we are already united to Christ, our Bridegroom, who gave His life for us. Now we live in a time of watchful anticipation, waiting for His coming.

The bridegroom's arrival at midnight represents the unexpected coming of Christ—at the end of time, at the hour of our death, and even in His daily coming through grace. The wise virgins brought enough oil, symbolizing lives filled with grace, charity, and perseverance. The foolish failed to prepare. Though all fell asleep, only those who were ready entered the feast.

Imagine hearing the sudden cry: "Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!" Would you be ready to meet the Lord today, or would you assume you still had more time?

This parable is not only about preparing for death. Jesus comes to us every day in moments of prayer and in opportunities to love, forgive, repent, serve, and surrender. Each grace is an invitation to open our hearts to Him. If we continually delay or resist, we risk missing not only the eternal wedding feast, but also the joy of His presence here and now.

Reflect on the oil in your own lamp. Are you attentive to God's grace, or have distractions made you spiritually drowsy? Ask the Lord to awaken your heart and keep you ready for His coming, whether at the end of your life or in the quiet moments of each day.

Remain watchful, keep your lamp burning, and be ready to follow Him whenever He calls.

The Kids Bulletin

Be Ready

Jesus told a story about ten young women who were waiting for a wedding. They had lamps because the bridegroom might come at night. Five women were ready. They had enough oil for their lamps. Five were not ready.

At midnight, someone shouted, “The bridegroom is here!” The women who were ready lit their lamps and went to the wedding feast. The others had to go find more oil. When they came back, the door was closed.

Jesus tells us this story because He wants us to be ready for Him. We do not know when Jesus will call us. But we can be ready every day.

We are ready when we pray, when we love others, when we forgive and we are ready when we choose what is good.

Jesus comes to us in many little ways each day. He asks us to open our hearts and follow Him.

The main idea is simple: Be ready for Jesus every day.

St. Joan of Arc Circle presents our 2026 Christmas Ornament.

The image for the ornament is of the beautiful Assumption Window found in the media center of our Parish School. The Window has its origins in 1907 and was rescued from demolition and sent to our campus when the school was built in 1995.

Ornaments will be for sale after all Masses on November 14 - 15 and November 21-22. They can be purchased for $25 by cash or check made payable to Annunciation Catholic Church or Zelle. Proceeds benefit local charities supported by St. Joan of Arc Circle.

Catechesis Corner

Kingdom of Heaven

When Jesus speaks of the Kingdom of Heaven, He is not simply talking about a place we hope to go after we die. The Kingdom of Heaven is God's reign in our hearts and in the world. Jesus came to bring this Kingdom to us and invites each of us to live as part of it.

Whenever we choose to forgive, serve others, love our neighbor, or follow God's will, we help make His Kingdom present in our lives. The Kingdom of Heaven begins here and now, but it will reach its fullness when we are united with God forever in Heaven.

The Kingdom of Heaven is not just something we wait for—it is something we are called to live today.

Pillars of Faith

by Fr. Stephen Baumann

Dedication of St. John Lateran – November 9th

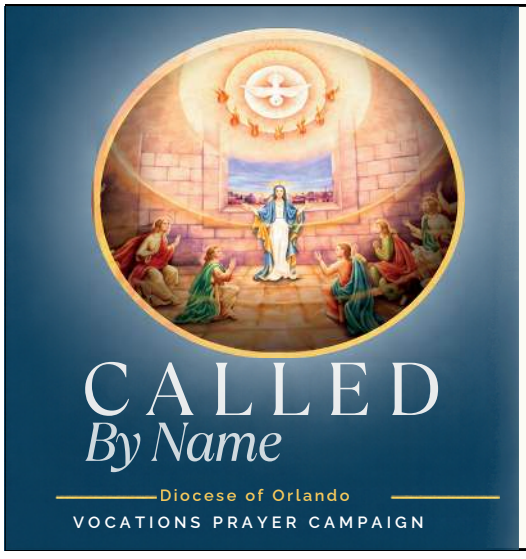

The anniversary of the dedication of the Lateran Basilica – Cathedral of Rome, which was erected by the Emperor Constantine, has been observed on this date since the twelfth century. The name "Lateran" is derived from the Laterani family who donated the land in Rome for the Basilica.

There is an inscription on the outer wall that says (translated into English) that "this Basilica is the mother church of Christendom" – of the world. Celebration of this Feast is a sign of our unity with the Chair of Peter, since the Holy Father's cathedra (official chair) is located in that church. Interestingly, it is believed that the simple wooden table upon which St. Peter celebrated Mass, is located beneath the high altar.

Jesus told us that the kingdom of God is within us. Each of us are sacred, as we are temples of the Holy Spirit. All we need do is open ourselves to Him so that He can shine on the world through us. The elderly lady in the church carried God's presence in a very real way; she was a living temple of God.

Our parish church in which we gather is also God's temple. This means that God's presence here is special, and it means that our presence is special, too. Symbolically, we purify ourselves with holy water as we enter. We recognize the sacramental presence of Jesus Christ, reserved for us in the tabernacle. This is a place for getting in touch with ourselves and with God by praying, praising, interceding, and offering sacrifice together with our brothers and sisters. But it is just one place; there are many other places – our homes, often called the "domestic church," our places of work, and of play.

What we celebrate today on this feast, in a word, is God's presence among us, and in us. All these words are just reminders of the many ways that God is with us, and to make us aware of the treasure that we carry within us: God Himself.

THE LORD CALLS EACH OF US BY NAME TO A LIFE OF HOLINESS...

This is the primary vocation of every man and woman: to be a Saint. We are also called to help one another to discern the Will of the Lord in our lives, and we need your help.

During the month of November, scan the QR Code, and please prayerfully consider sharing the name(s) of one young man or woman you sense could have a Vocation to the Priesthood, Diaconate, Religious Life, or Consecrated Life and for whom we should pray.

JOIN US IN PRAYER...

O Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

We ask you to bless the Diocese of Orlando. You have promised that You shall not leave us orphans, so please bless us with many spiritual fathers and mothers. Strengthen the men You call to Diocesan Priesthood, the Diaconate, Religious Life, and Consecrated Life with merciful hearts like unto Yours.

Grant us spiritual mothers in Religious and Consecrated Life who imitate the Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

May all see the love of Your Sacred Heart, You who live and reign with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

Amen.
